They will never do it. They will never do it because they cannot do it. They have failed—utterly and completely. The time for equivocation, explanation and apology has passed. It is now time to face the situation squarely and unflinchingly: The team of scholars assigned more than 30 years ago to publish the Dead Sea Scrolls will never publish them because they cannot! The task was simply too great. The team of editors has now become more of an obstacle to publication than a source of information. WHY THE QUMRAN INHABITANTS WERE NOT ESSENES

Essene Characteristics		Qumranite Characteristics
Evidence from Ancient Texts		Evidence from the Dead Sea Scrolls	Archaeological Evidence from Qumran
Peace-loving	vs.	War-like
"The Essenes hate war and love peace. They will not fight." Epidorus, Historia Palestina 6.7.		"When you approach a city to fight it, [first] offer it peace.... If it does not make peace but is ready to fight a war against you, besiege it and I will deliver it into your hands." Temple Scroll (11QT) 62.6-9.	Partial destruction of the fortified tower. Suggests that Qumran residents fiercely resisted attack.
Celibate	vs.	Married
"[They live]... without women, renouncing love entirely." Pliny, Natural History 5.15.73.		"A man may marry a beautiful captive woman, but he must first let her mourn a month for her parents." Temple Scroll (11QT) 63.11-15.	Women's and children's skeletons in the Qumran cemeteries.
Opposed to Slavery	vs.	Owned Slaves
"They acquire no slaves;... they consider slavery an injustice." Flavius Josephus, Antiquities 18.21.		"[H]e shall not sell them [the Gentiles] his manservant or his maidservant." Damascus Rule (CD) 12.10.
Scorned Wealth	vs.	Wealthy
"They despise riches." Josephus, War 2.122.			High-quality stoneware from Jerusalem, luxurious glassware and a hoard of coins were found.
Refused to Swear Oaths	vs.	Oath-takers
"They refrain from swearing, considering it worse than perjury." Josephus, War 2.135.		"When a man makes a vow to me or swears an oath to take upon himself a binding obligation, he must not break his word." Temple Scroll (11QT) 53.14-16.
Held No Private Property	vs.	Private-Property Holders
"It is the law that those who enter the sect shall surrender their property to the order." Josephus, War 2.122.		"They shall place the earnings of at least two days out of every month into the hands of the guardian... and from it they shall succor the poor and the needy." Damascus Rule (CD) 14.12.

Is Jesus in the Dead Sea Scrolls?

Newly revealed texts offer tantalizing—and controversial—evidence on Christian origins

By RICHARD N. OSTLING

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS ARE AN endless source of sensationalism. American supermarket tabloids would have readers believe these ancient Jewish texts reveal visitations from outer space, the cure for AIDS and the date the world will end. In a new book somehow inspired by the scrolls, Barbara Thiering of Australia's University of Sydney tells of a Jesus who was crucified but secretly revived at the Dead Sea and who wed a woman bishop at midnight on March 17, A.D. 50.

Amid all the hokum, however, the latest discoveries on actual details in the scrolls are startling enough to generate legitimate headlines. Texts that are only now becoming widely available establish the first connection between the scrolls and Jesus' New Testament words about his role as the Messiah. The debate over all the possible interpretations is bound to be fierce.

At one extreme, liberal scholars will undoubtedly argue that early Christian writings may have been largely mythological, derived from the scrolls or other earlier Jewish texts. On the other side, Christian conservatives will reply that such scrolls demonstrate more clearly than ever that the Gospels are authentic, reflecting 1st century conditions, and that God was preparing the Jews for the Messiah's advent.

The new evidence is just being revealed because many scrolls remained unpublished for decades after they were found in the years following World War II near the site of ancient Qumran. The scrolls came under the control of a cliquish committee that currently consists of Christian and Jewish scholars loosely overseen by the Israeli government. Most of the major texts were issued long ago, including ancient copies that demonstrated anew how remarkably accurate scribes were in transmitting the Old Testament.

The unpublished material was mostly thousands of fragments, making reconstruction extremely difficult and interpretations open to dispute. Scholars on the official committee worked on these remaining texts at a painfully slow pace, while granting others severely limited access to them. By the late 1980s, scholarly temperatures reached the boiling point. One recent book claims Roman Catholic priests beholden to the Vatican conspired to cover up the texts lest they

FORESHADOWING JESUS?

They said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who is to come, or shall we look for another?'" . . . [Jesus] answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the poor have good news preached to them. And blessed is he who takes no offense at me."

—THE GOSPEL OF LUKE, 7: 20-23

Surely the Lord shall visit the pious and shall call the righteous by name. His spirit shall hover over the poor; by his strength he shall renew the faithful. He shall glorify the pious upon the throne of the eternal kingdom. He shall release the captives, restore sight to the blind, make straight those who are bent double . . . He shall heal the wounded, resurrect the dead, preach glad tidings to the poor.

—FROM WISE'S RECONSTRUCTED DEAD SEA TEXT 4Q521

shake the doctrinal foundations of Mother Church. The true reasons are more mundane: too few scholars monopolizing too much material, team members' personal problems, shortage of money, political and
