MOTIVATION

- 1. Grace – Grace is the greatest motivator because grace frees us from the bondage of sin.
- 2. Love – When a leader loves his followers, he motivates his followers.
- 3. Positive Climate – Leaders create an atmosphere where everyone feels free to be their most productive.

MOTIVATION

4. Communication – The transmission of ideas between persons in a language common to both.

- A. Leaders communicate with balance
- B. Leaders communicate accurately
- C. Leaders communicate clearly
- D. Leaders communicate with courtesy
- E. Leaders communicate continuously
- F. Leaders communicate challenge

MOTIVATION

5. Listening – Good listening skills motivate people because they feel you care.

6. Changing – The ultimate motivator is for a leader to listen and make changes.

7. Serving – A servant spirit is the heart of the Christian faith.

MOTIVATION

8. Delegating – Delegating is a recognition of the ability of others and one's trust in them.

9. Evaluating – Evaluating others affirms them in their strengths and helps them in their weaknesses.

10. Confronting – Confronting those who fail to follow through encourages them and others.
