Summary Statement

Selected events about Christ,
the Son of God (deity) who serves as the model Suffering Servant, exhorts persecuted Roman believers to true discipleship for Christ.

Kingdom Statement

27a

The kingdom frees from sin through repentance (1:14-15) and grows in contrast to the stagnant state of those rejecting Jesus (4:1-34). His transfiguration depicts his position as King to teach that future glory will follow present suffering for him and his followers (9:1-13).

Mark

Jesus as the fulfillment of the OT covenants is not emphasized due to the pastoral concern of the book addressed to suffering Roman believers who needed a practical example of one who suffered for righteousness.

Mark

Redemption

27a

Redemption is key (10:45): “For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve (cf. Christ's service in 1:14–10:52) and to give his life as a ransom for many (cf. Christ's self-sacrifice in chapters 11–15 = 37% of the book).”

Mark

Jesus (Messianic Prophecy)

27a

The paradox between authority and servanthood (8:35; 9:35; 10:43-44) shows Jesus unlike the type of militant ruler Jews expected of the Messiah. The Gospel abounds in high Christology (1:1; 8:29; 15:39) yet has only one OT quote (1:2).

New Testament Chronology

The Gospels

NIV Study Bible, 1471

Matthew

Mark

Luke

John

48

- The word "Gospel" comes from the Old English "God-spell." It translates the Greek word for "good news."
- In antiquity king's heralds announced "glad tidings" of the king's birthday throughout the cities of the realm.
- It has the same meaning in our New Testament. The four Gospels announce the glad tidings about Jesus.
- The ancient world knew of history, poetry, prophecy and letters. But a "gospel" was new to them.
- Here, inspired writers gave more than just history. They also created faith (John 20:30-31) by proclaiming the good news that, just as the OT had promised, God had sent His Messiah to the world.

- Why are there four Gospels? Perhaps for the same reason different descriptions of a finely cut jewel would appeal to different people.

Matthew

- describes one facet of the life of Christ, Mark another, and Luke a third.

The Synoptics

Matthew

Mark

Luke

John

48

These three Gospels are so much alike that they are called Synoptic ("see with," or "see alike") Gospels. They all look at Christ's life from a historical perspective. On the other hand, John's Gospel dwells more on the inner meaning of Jesus' life and teachings.

When Events Happened

Synoptic Similarities

- Matthew, Mark and Luke are noticeably similar, while John is quite different.
- How do the first three Gospels agree?
 - Language
 - Material they include
 - General order of the events and sayings from the life of Christ
- The math facts:
 - 91 percent of Mark is found in Matthew
 - 53 percent of Mark is found in Luke
- Such agreement raises questions as to the origin of the Synoptic Gospels. Did the authors rely on a common source? Were they interdependent?

Solutions to the Synoptic Problem

Questions like these constitute what is known as the Synoptic Problem. Several solutions have been advanced:

1. *The use of oral tradition. Some have thought that tradition had become so stereotyped that it provided a common source from which all the Gospel writers drew.
2. *The use of an early Gospel. Some have postulated that the Synoptic authors all had access to an earlier Gospel, now lost.
3. *The use of written fragments. Some have assumed that written fragments had been composed concerning various events from the life of Christ and that these were used by the Synoptic authors.
4. Mutual dependence. Some have suggested that the Synoptic writers drew from each other with the result that what they wrote was often very similar.

Solutions to the Synoptic Problem

4. The use of two major sources. The most common view currently is that Mark and a hypothetical document, called Quelle (German for "source") or Q, were used by Matthew and Luke as sources for most of the materials included in their Gospels.
5. The priority and use of Matthew. Another view suggests that the other two Synoptics drew from Matthew as their main source.
6. A combination of most of the above. This theory assumes that the authors of the Synoptic Gospels made use of oral tradition, written fragments, mutual dependence on other Synoptic writers or on their Gospels, and the testimony of eyewitnesses.

Introduction

Title

The earliest title of Mark's gospel account (Κατὰ Μάρκον According to Mark) was added by a scribe
sometime before AD 125
(Grassmick, BKC, 2:95)

Authorship

External Evidence

The unanimous testimony of the early Church Fathers is that Mark, an associate of the Apostle Peter, penned the Gospel which now bears his name.

Papias, Bishop of Hierapolis
Justin Martyr
Irenaeus of Lyons
Tertullian
Clement of Alexandria
Origen

In light of the external and internal evidence it is reasonable to assume that the John Mark of Acts and the Epistles is the author.

Internal Evidence:

- Factors indicate that it is Mark:
 - the unidentified man who fled naked at Gethsemane – "the young man" – himself!
 - Description of "guest room" – Last Supper room was in his own home.
 - Author's familiarity with Palestine, its Aramaic language and the Jewish institutions and customs.
 - Book mentions details which were known only to Christ's "inner-circle" apostles – Peter, author's key source of information.

Date of Mark

83

Peter did not come to Rome until about AD 63 – Mark's gospel cannot be dated before AD 63.

Mark does not mention the Fall of Jerusalem in AD 70 – Mark was probably penned between AD 64-68, during the reign of Nero.

Peter was martyred in AD 64, but tradition divides whether Mark composed before Peter's death or afterwards

Origin/Recipients

The external evidence

The universal testimony of the early church fathers is that Mark's Gospel was written in Rome primarily for Gentile Christians in Rome.

Gentile emphasis in the text

- Explains Jewish customs
- Uses Latin loan words
- Contains only one OT quotation
- Interprets Aramaic expressions
- Mentions that the gospel will be preached to all nations
- Views the temple as a house of prayer for all nations

Occasion

Clement of Alexandria testified that Mark wrote his gospel at the request of Roman Christians. It was written during the reign of Nero (AD 54-68), a time when the church faced intense persecution.

For this reason Mark's purpose is more pastoral. He wrote to prepare his readers for suffering. Christian discipleship involves hardship—even death—as is modeled in the Lord Jesus.

Matthew

- Matthew: (1) proves Jesus as Messiah for unbelieving Jews to trust Him, and (2) explains that the kingdom is postponed due to Israel's rejection of Christ as King for believing Jews to see His present kingdom authority as residing in the Church.

Mark

- Mark presents in a pastoral concern selected events about Christ, the Son of God (deity) who serves as the model Suffering Servant, to exhort persecuted Roman believers to true discipleship for Christ.

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

Mark

"The time promised by God has come at last!" he announced. "The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!" (Mark 1:15 NLT).

A cinematic scene depicting Jesus, with long dark hair and a beard, wearing a white robe, standing on a rocky shore. He is gesturing towards a group of men, including one in the foreground wearing a brown tunic and a headband. In the background, a small wooden boat with a sail is on the water. The scene is set against a backdrop of a calm sea and distant hills under a cloudy sky. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

"Jesus called out to them, 'Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!' ¹⁸ And they left their nets at once and followed him" (Mark 1:17-18 NLT).

Many opposed Jesus as be opposed (2:13–8:26).

Mark 3

"Jesus went into the synagogue again and noticed a man with a deformed hand."

² Since it was the Sabbath, Jesus' enemies watched him closely. If he healed the man's hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath" (Mark 3:1-2 NLT).

Mark 3:20-21 NLT

A dramatic scene of Jesus surrounded by a crowd in a dimly lit room. Jesus, with long dark hair and a beard, wears a white robe and stands in the center with his hands raised. He is surrounded by a diverse group of people, including men, women, and a child, all looking at him with expressions of awe and concern. The room has stone walls and a bright light source in the background, creating a strong contrast and highlighting Jesus. The overall atmosphere is one of a significant, possibly controversial, event.

One time Jesus entered a house, and the crowds began to gather again. Soon he and his disciples couldn't even find time to eat. ²¹When his family heard what was happening, they tried to take him away. "He's out of his mind," they said.

Jesus' Own Hometown Persecuted Him

"Then they scoffed, 'He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us.' They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him" (Mark 6:3 NLT).

Blasphemy Against the Spirit

- Have you ever known anyone who thought he or she had committed this sin?
- What happened?

Blasphemy Verses

1. Matt. 12:31-32 “So I tell you, every sin and blasphemy can be forgiven—except blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which will never be forgiven. ³²Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, either in this world or in the world to come.
2. Mark 3:28-29 “I tell you the truth, all sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, ²⁹but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. This is a sin with eternal consequences.”

Unacceptable Views of the Blasphemy

1. Using Christ's name in vain
2. A sinful lifestyle that causes a Christian to lose his salvation forever (not repentable)
3. Cessationists will not go to heaven

Unacceptable Views of the Blasphemy

4. This sin could only happen during His earthly ministry and thus cannot happen today. Jesus isn't physically here performing miracles—it must be committed to His face.
5. A non-Christian's unbelief which lasts until death

Unacceptable Views of the Blasphemy

6. Adultery

7. Divorce

8. Suicide

The Problem Solved

- The Context

The Context of the Text

- 1. Christ healed a blind/mute (Matt. 12:22)

The background of the image is a photograph of a man dressed in a dark, long robe and a head covering, standing in a field of dry, rocky soil. He is holding a small brown bag and is in the process of sowing seeds, with many seeds visible in the air around him. The background is filled with lush green trees and foliage under bright sunlight.

Outline

- I. Christ's coming as Servant identifies Him as Messiah and deity but receives a very brief summary by Mark to get quickly to the main content of his account: His service and sacrifice as Servant (1:1-13) .
- II. Christ's ministry as Servant receives opposition, which Mark records with Christ's response of teaching on discipleship in order to encourage his readers to expect persecution for righteousness' sake (1:14–10:52) .

Decapolis and the Lands Beyond the Jordan

89

Jesus and his disciples withdrew here (Mt 16:13; Mk 8:27) and here he asked Peter who he thought Jesus was (Mt 16:15-16).

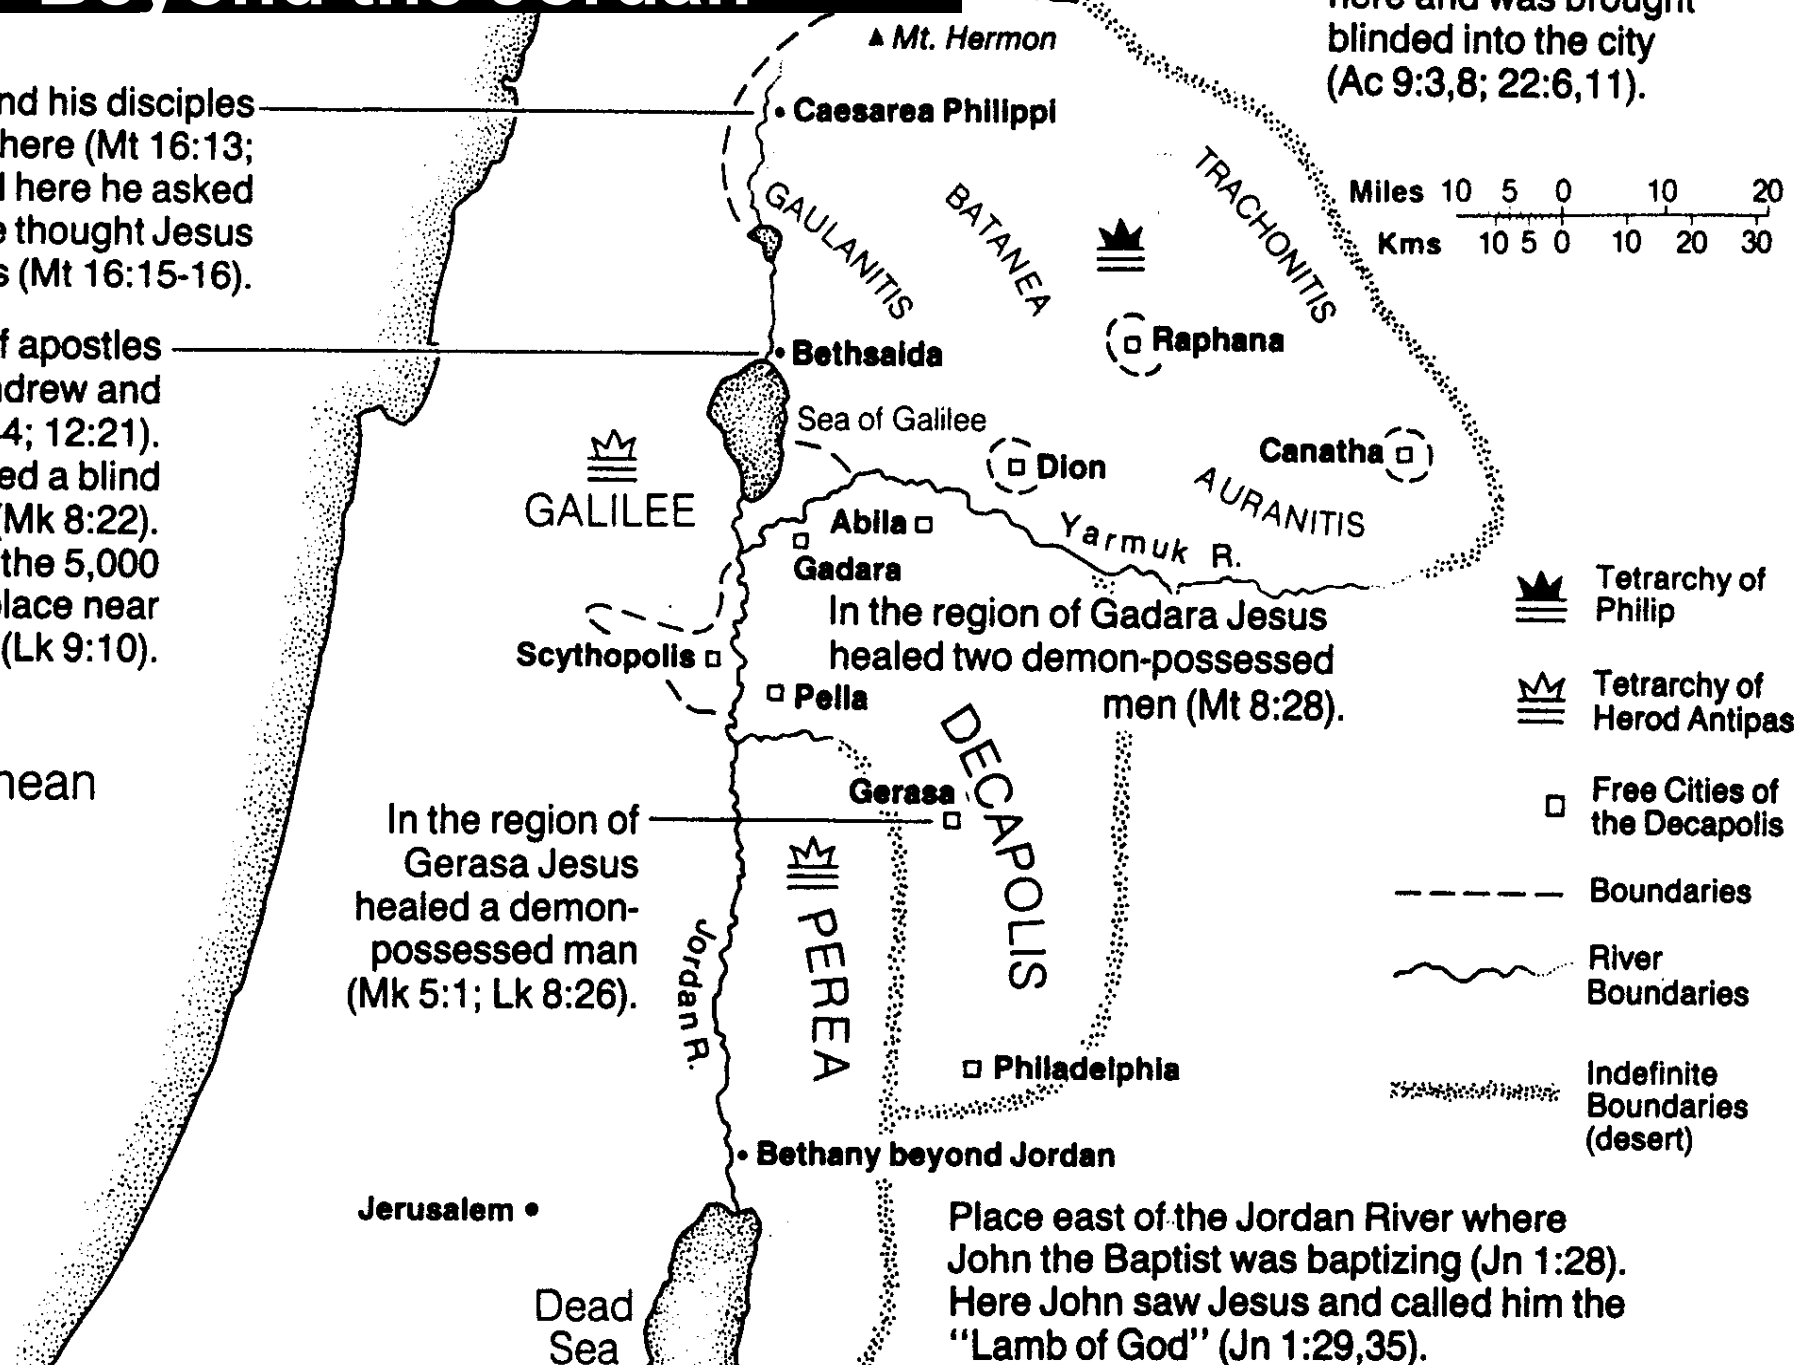

Home of apostles Philip, Andrew and Peter (Jn 1:44; 12:21). Jesus healed a blind man here (Mk 8:22). Feeding of the 5,000 took place near here (Lk 9:10).

Mediterranean Sea

In the region of Gerasa Jesus healed a demon-possessed man (Mk 5:1; Lk 8:26).

Place east of the Jordan River where John the Baptist was baptizing (Jn 1:28). Here John saw Jesus and called him the "Lamb of God" (Jn 1:29,35).

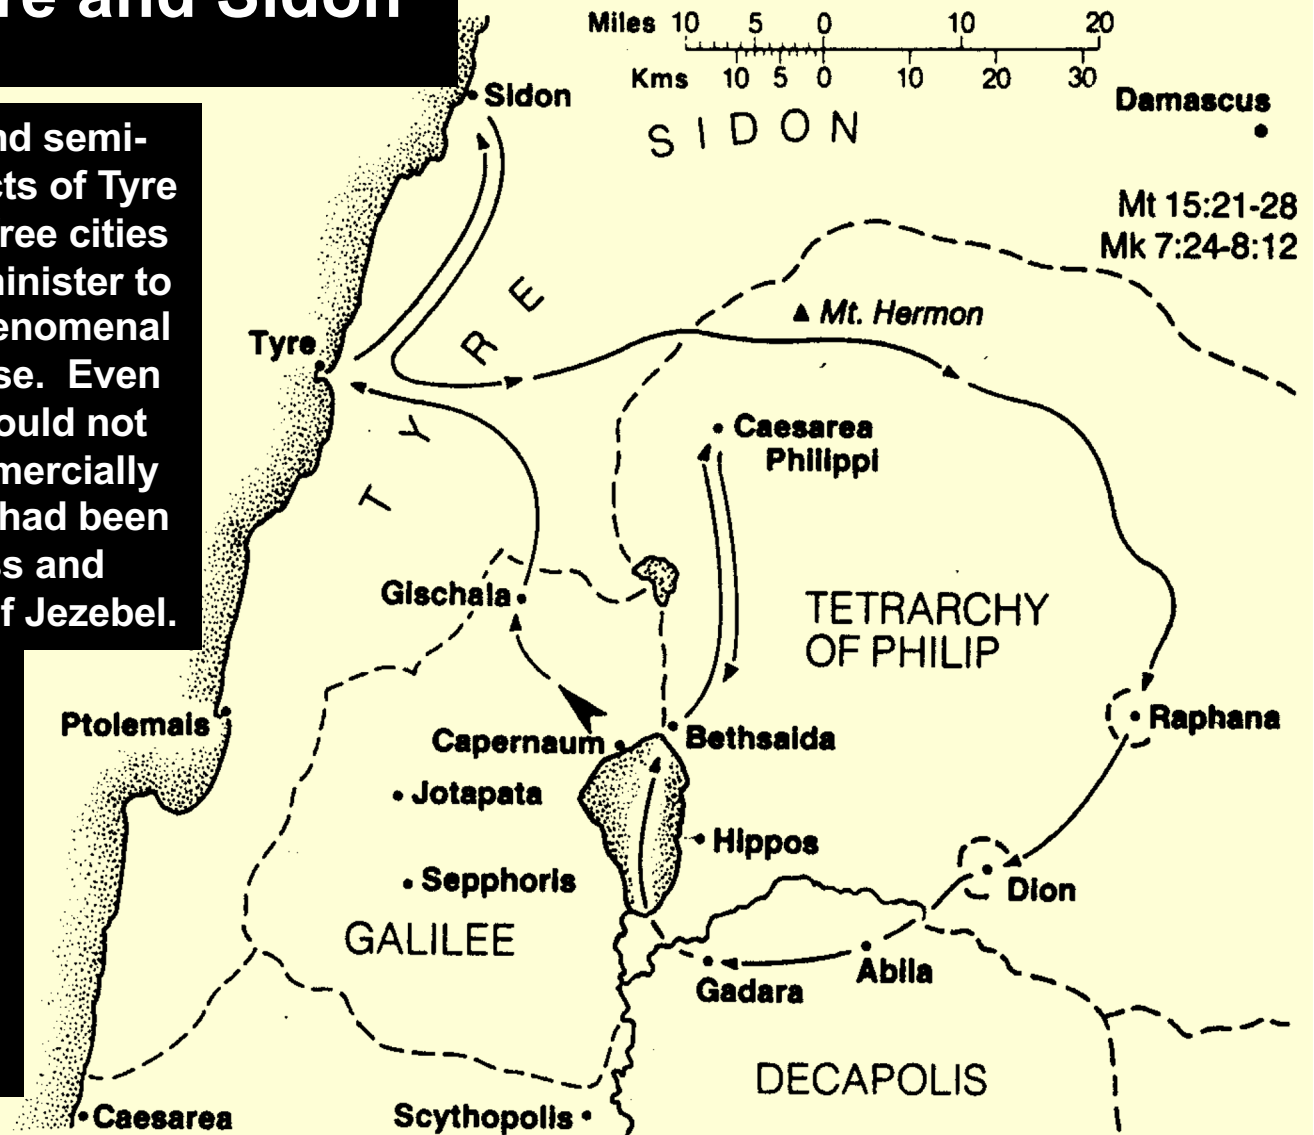

Paul was converted near here and was brought blinded into the city (Ac 9:3,8; 22:6,11).

The Territories of Tyre and Sidon

In a unique excursion into pagan and semi-pagan areas, Jesus visited the districts of Tyre and Sidon and the confederation of free cities called Decapolis. He was called to minister to "the lost sheep of Israel," but the phenomenal public attention in Galilee was intense. Even here his fame had spread, and he could not keep his presence secret. The commercially magnificent cities of Tyre and Sidon had been a source of cultural seductiveness and religious heterodoxy since the time of Jezebel.

The cities having been influenced by Hellenism, the sophistication of Greek culture was apparent in their coinage and architecture. Each was also a proud, historic center of Canaanite paganism, with tombs of ancient kings and temples to Melqart/Heracles. Astarte and various other deities.

Mark 6

Jesus' Family Persecuted Him

Holy Spirit

"Then they scoffed, 'He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us.' They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him" (Mark 6:3 NLT).
