

Developing Leadership through Mentoring and Coaching (SBC-Fall 2016)

Unit 9

Discussion Questions:

1. What triggered your initial involvement in one-on-one discipleship?
2. What specific decision/action steps have you taken along the way to get to where you are today? In other words, why are you still engaged in this process?
3. What did your discipler do that impacted you the most?
4. How do you sustain motivation and interest in “the process” (as a discipler/ as a disciple) as time wears on?
5. What are some key convictions/values you have found necessary to successfully mentor/disciple/coach another person?
6. How or in what ways did the person who disciplined you help you become a committed spiritual discipler to others?
7. What is one of your regrets in your discipling ministry experience?
8. What has been the greatest joy for you in one-on-one discipleship?
9. How do you create margins in your schedule to meet with others in discipleship?
10. How do you measure individual/church success when it comes to making disciples?
11. What would you want to say to new ministry leaders regarding the benefits of getting involved in one-on-one discipleship efforts?
12. What’s the best piece of advice regarding discipling others that you could pass along?
13. What “one main thing” do you really want me to hear you say today about the process of launching spiritual multipliers?
14. How do you deal with a situation when the person you’re discipling is considering an unwise course of action? They are intent on moving forward with a bad idea that, in your opinion, will be detrimental.