Key Word: Doctrine

Key Verse: “All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work... Preach the Word” (2 Timothy 3:16-17; 4:2).

Summary Statement: The way to persevere amidst apostasy is to faithfully obey and preach God’s Word.

Application: Is anything more powerful against heresy than God’s Word—methods, logic, ignoring false teaching, etc.? While teaching proper doctrine is not the only strategy needed, it is the most important priority to fight false doctrine.

2 Timothy

Introduction

I. Title: The letter of 2 Timothy (Πρὸς Τιμόθεον β΄, Second to Timothy) is one of the three letters called The Pastoral Epistles. These are unique as they address individuals (not churches) and constitute Paul's last writings (cf. 1 Timothy notes).

II. Authorship

- A. External Evidence: Support for Paul's authorship is as good as that for any other Pauline epistle except Romans and 1 Corinthians (cf. 1 Timothy notes).
- B. Internal Evidence: The letter claims that Paul wrote it (2 Tim 1:1) and contains the typical Pauline traits (cf. 1 Timothy notes).

III. Circumstances

- A. Date: The chronology of Paul's last years is obscure (Guthrie, 623), yet a harmonization of internal and external data yields this scenario (Hoehner, "Chronology of the Apostolic Age," DTS, 381-84):

First Roman Imprisonment (Acts 28:30-31)

Destruction of Jerusalem

September 2, 70

- B. Origin/Recipients: Paul penned 2 Timothy to his long-time traveling companion, Timothy (2 Tim 1:2), five years after his first letter. If Timothy was still in Ephesus (1 Tim 1:3b), 2 Timothy also had the same destination (2 Tim 1:16-18; 4:19). Paul wrote from Rome (1:17; 2:9; Roman names in 4:21) in his second Roman imprisonment after his first defense before the Imperial Court (4:16-17).
- C. Occasion: When Paul wrote 2 Timothy, he was an experienced inmate. Ten years earlier (May 29–June 9, 57), he was imprisoned in Jerusalem for a few weeks, then 8-10 years earlier in Caesarea for over two years, and 5-7 years earlier in Rome for over two years. With nearly five of the past ten years behind bars, he knew about prisons and political procedures. He knew this second Roman imprisonment could only result in execution (2 Tim 4:6-8). Since Paul did not expect to live much longer in the Roman jail, he requested Timothy to hurry to him before winter (2 Tim 4:9, 21).

Rome had burned three years before Paul composed 2 Timothy (AD 64). Nero blamed Christians, so it became perilous to be a Christian and especially to be a leader or associated with one. As a result, many of Paul's co-workers sought a far lower profile, and some even fell away (everyone in Asia, 1:15; Demas, 4:10; Alexander, 4:14). No one even defended Paul before the Emperor when he was on trial for his life (4:16). No doubt the timid Timothy was tempted to minister less assertively as well (1:7-8). Therefore, Paul wrote this epistle to remind him of the need to faithfully continue to preach the Word in the face of hardship (4:2) and false teachers (3:6-9; 4:3-4).

IV. Characteristics

- A. This letter to Paul's younger protégé is unique because it is his last extant writing.
- B. This letter provides the clearest NT exposition of the need for exposition (4:2). It shows the need to guard the gospel (1:14), emphasizes the centrality of the Scriptures (2:15), notes how we must persevere in the gospel (3:14) and suffer for it (1:8; 2:3), and provides an essential explanation of the inspiration of Scripture (3:16-17).

Argument

Paul's second letter to Timothy concerns itself more with the man Timothy than his congregation, as was the case for the first letter. With so many falling away just before Paul's death, he carefully chooses his words in perhaps his last statements to Timothy to assure that Timothy himself would remain faithful to Christ until death. The apostle accomplishes this end by urging him to persevere in present hardships with godly character (2 Tim 1–2) because the future will be even more challenging (2 Tim 3–4). He will mainly have to fight apostasy by faithfully preaching the Word of God (3:10–4:5).

Outline

Summary Statement for the Book

The way to persevere amidst apostasy is to obey and preach God's Word faithfully.

- I. The way to persevere amidst present apostasy is to faithfully obey God's Word (2 Tim 1–2).
 - A. Paul greeted Timothy with his persevering attitude in the face of death (1:1-2).
 - B. Timothy should imitate the faithfulness of others despite many who had fallen away (1:3-18).
 1. He learned faithfulness from his mother and grandmother shown at his ordination (1:3-7).
 2. He should bravely suffer Nero's tortures like Paul through the gospel's power (1:8-14).
 3. Asian believers deserted Jesus, but Onesiphorus set a faithful example (1:15-18).
 - C. The characteristics of faithfulness encourage us to persevere in present trials (2 Tim 2).
 1. Like a discipling teacher, invest in others the teaching you received (2:1-2).
 2. Like a good soldier, show unswerving commitment to please your superior, Jesus (2:3-4).
 3. Like a successful athlete, obey the rules in God's Word (2:5).
 4. Like a diligent farmer, have the joy of spiritual fruit like Jesus after being raised (2:6-13).
 5. Like an unashamed workman, fight heresy with Scripture—not human words (2:14-19).
 6. Like a noble instead of a lowly container, be pure to avoid false teachers (2:20-22).
 7. Like a gentle servant, gently teach false teachers instead of arguing with them (2:23-26).
- II. The way to persevere amidst future apostasy is to faithfully preach God's Word (2 Tim 3–4).
 - A. Before Jesus returns, avoid false teachers who are smooth-tongued but godless (3:1-9).
 - B. Accept and preach the Word of God and fulfill all ministry duties (3:10–4:5).
 1. Accept the truth embodied in the Scriptures (3:10-17).
 2. Preach and live the truth by hardship, rebuking, encouraging, and evangelizing (4:1-5).
 - C. Hope in God until death despite betrayals by friends (4:6-18).
 - D. Do not be conquered by death, but victorious in it and relational through every trial (4:19-22).

The Process of Church Discipline

How to Exercise Church Authority to Restore Sinning Christians (Matt. 18:15-20)

Introduction

1. Every church eventually encounters problems with believers living in sin. A loving body will restore them to God's holiness in these cases.
2. Key Issue: But how do we restore sinning Christians properly?
3. In Matthew 18:15-20 Jesus provides God's plan for loving church discipline:

If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over. ¹⁶But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that 'every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.' ¹⁷If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector. ¹⁸I tell you the truth, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. ¹⁹Again, I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything you ask for, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them.

4. This text has two central teachings outlined below. First...

I. Keep the matter as private as possible (15-17).

- A. The desired end is restoration, not punishment or excommunication.
 1. We must be clear that the goal of discipline is behavior change since many churches (e.g., Catholic) "excommunicate" to punish rather than restore.
 2. Restoration is God's goal for a wandering saint in the context (vv. 10-14).
 3. Restoration is the explicit teaching of this text in verse 15b.
 4. Restoration is the desired goal of church discipline in other passages (Gal. 6:1, etc.).
- B. God's restoring process has four progressive steps informing more people about sin (15-17).
 1. First, only the offended person should deal with it individually (15).
 - a) Note that the text deals specifically with a believer living in sin. This does not refer simply to differences of opinion on debatable matters. (See the end of this study for a list of sins worthy of discipline.)
 - b) The human tendency is to tell others about the problem rather than the one involved, but God's command here is to keep the issue as private as possible.
 - c) While letter writing was very popular in Christ's time, our Lord specifically says to deal with these sensitive matters face-to-face. Today, this means confrontation should never be handled via letter, phone call, or email. It also prohibits the cowardice of anonymous communication.

(What if the offender does not repent?)

2. The offended person should take only one or two others (16).
 - a) These 1-2 persons should be individuals the offender respects as they will best help restore him/her. They should not go instead of the offended believer, but along with this person.

- b) The OT law prohibited conviction of crimes based on only one person's testimony (Deut. 19:15). The NT teaching is the same, protecting the offender from an easily offended or lying accuser.

(What if the offender still does not repent?)

- 3. The sin should be exposed to the entire church (17a).
 - a) The church leadership certainly must be involved at this point before the matter is brought to the congregation. They also must not see the issue as a difference of opinion between two parties; the biblical basis for the offender living in sin must be clearly shown with specific passages.
 - b) Bringing the matter to the entire church is vital since, without it, the sinning person will be able to find fellowship in other smaller groups within the larger church who do not know of his/her sin. Such gossip situations inevitably bring disunity, which leads to factions that can split the body.

(What should the entire church do once discipline has been determined?)

- 4. The church should treat this person as an unbeliever (17b).
 - a) Sometimes, this step has been interpreted as "excommunication," in which the errant person is never contacted again.
 - b) However, Jesus said, "Treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector." Since Jesus treated pagans (Gentiles) and publicans with love and kindness, how does this indicate discipline? The idea here is not to be ugly or ungodly but to follow guidelines such as:
 - (1) Don't refer to the disciplined person as a Christian.
 - (2) Seek to evangelize this person.
 - (3) Do not allow the person to participate in the Lord's Supper.
 - (4) Remove the person from membership.
 - (5) Remove this person from any responsibility in the church.
 - (6) Prohibit the sinner from attending church.¹
 - (7) The Corinthians had to "deliver over to Satan" a believer living in sexual sin (1 Cor. 5: 5). In like manner, proper church discipline places the erring believer out from under God's protection into Satan's domain.
 - (8) Church members should not eat with the disciplined person (1 Cor. 5:11).

(But why can we do all this? What right do we have to discipline our members? Because...)

¹ Some say they, like unbelievers, should be welcomed in services without taking the Lord's Supper; however, in most discipline cases this is not even an issue as few disciplined believers seek to return to the assembly until repentant.

II. Our church extends the authority of God himself (18-20)!

- A. We act in the place of the Father when we seek to restore someone (18-19).
 - 1. Too often today's churches act as if they have no authority under God (yet we should still exercise discipline upon sinning members who leave to attend another church).
 - 2. However, God has already determined what we announce as guilt or innocence (18).
 - a) "Whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven" (NIV) is a periphrastic future perfect tense. It is better rendered "shall already have been permanently bound,"² meaning, "Truly I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven" (NASB Updated).
 - b) Thus, what Jesus is saying is that, when a local body follows biblical procedure in love toward restoration, the decision of the church leadership in the matter has already been preceded by heavenly dictate!
 - 3. We should trust that our leaders' prayerful judgments are God's will (19; cf. Ps. 82:1).
- B. We act in the presence and authority of Christ when we seek to restore someone (20).
 - 1. The "two or three" refers to the witnesses whose testimony enacted discipline (v. 16).
 - 2. The point of Christ being "in their midst" is that local church discipline acts with the presence and authority of Christ Himself.

Conclusion

- 1. Main Idea: Restore sinners because you act for God!
- 2. As a member of this church, you submit to its authority under God. This means that we will lovingly seek to restore you should you fall.
- 3. Is there sin in you worthy of discipline? Clean this up now and avoid pain for us all!
- 4. Do you know anyone who needs a private confrontation?

Purposes of Church Discipline

Why should every local church follow the procedure of Matthew 18:15-20, as difficult as this is to carry out? The NT gives at least twelve reasons each local church should lovingly seek to restore errant believers. These can all be described as three benefits each to four groupings within the local church that exercises church discipline:³

I. Benefits to the Offender

- A. It restores and reconciles the offender to God and to the fellowship.

Gal. 6:1 Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore him gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted.

- B. It stimulates the offender's spiritual inventory, leading to restoration to the fellowship.

2 Thess. 3:13-15 ¹³And as for you, brothers, never tire of doing what is right. ¹⁴If anyone does not obey our instruction in this letter, take special note of him. Do not associate with him, in order that he may feel ashamed. ¹⁵Yet do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

- C. It destroys fleshly lusts and returns the offender to the rule of Christ over his life.

1 Cor. 5:1-5 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that does not occur even among pagans: A man has his father's wife. ²And you are proud! Shouldn't you rather have been filled with grief and have put out of your fellowship the man who did this? ³Even though I am not physically present, I am with you in spirit. And I have already passed judgment on the one who did this, just as if I were present. ⁴When you are assembled in the name of our Lord Jesus and I am with you in spirit, and the power of our Lord Jesus is present, ⁵hand this man over to Satan, so that the sinful nature may be destroyed and his spirit saved on the day of the Lord.

II. Benefits to the Whole Church

- A. It purifies the worship and message of the church.

1 Cor. 5:6 Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast works through the whole batch of dough?

- B. It denies the enemy any advantage or access into the church.

2 Cor. 2:10-11 If you forgive anyone, I also forgive him. And what I have forgiven-- if there was anything to forgive-- I have forgiven in the sight of Christ for your sake, ¹¹in order that Satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

- C. It prevents God's discipline within the local church.

Rev. 2:4-5 Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken your first love. ⁵Remember the height from which you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.

³ Adapted from Ted G. Kitchens, ThD Dissertation (Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989), 239.

III. Benefits to Each Individual Believer in the Church

- A. It strengthens one's faith to maintain a clear conscience.
1 Timothy 1:18-20 Timothy, my son, I give you this instruction in keeping with the prophecies once made about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight, ¹⁹holding on to faith and a good conscience. Some have rejected these and so have shipwrecked their faith. ²⁰Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.
- B. It promotes self-examination in the offended believer's life.
2 Corinthians 7:11 See what this godly sorrow has produced in you: what earnestness, what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern, what readiness to see justice done. At every point you have proved yourselves to be innocent in this matter.
- C. It confirms individual responsibility for other believers.
Hebrews 3:13 But encourage one another daily, as long as it is called Today, so that none of you may be hardened by sin's deceitfulness.

IV. Benefits to the Church Authorities

- A. It protects the Scriptures from perversion and error.
Titus 1:10-13 For there are many rebellious people, mere talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision group. ¹¹They must be silenced, because they are ruining whole households by teaching things they ought not to teach-- and that for the sake of dishonest gain. ¹²Even one of their own prophets has said, "Cretans are always liars, evil brutes, lazy gluttons." ¹³This testimony is true. Therefore, rebuke them sharply, so that they will be sound in the faith
- B. It affirms obedience to the authority of God and his leadership.
2 Corinthians 2:9 The reason I wrote you was to see if you would stand the test and be obedient in everything.
- C. It allows the congregation to show that they support their church leaders.
2 Corinthians 7:12 So even though I wrote to you, it was not on account of the one who did the wrong or of the injured party, but rather that before God you could see for yourselves how devoted to us you are.

These twelve purposes for exercising church discipline show that courageous love for erring saints benefits the body in many ways. Should the church fail to discipline, one can also go through these twelve reasons for discipline and prove that the opposite truth would be true as well.

For example, consider the last purpose above: for the congregation to show support of its leaders. If the leaders do not exercise discipline when it is needed, the congregation has no opportunity to show trust in these leaders in a difficult situation. Rather, the people will distrust their leaders to handle matters in a biblical way. The unwillingness of leaders to exercise needed discipline has caused many congregations to lose respect for these leaders. May this not be your experience!

Sins that Warrant Church Discipline

All unrepentant sin is subject to corrective discipline. The scriptural emphasis is placed on those sins that especially violate the purity of the Christian community. The sins that warrant church discipline in the community are:⁴

I. Private and personal offenses that violate Christian love

- A. "If your brother sins against you..." (Matt. 18:15; cf. 5:23-24) means that even matters involving only two persons can still warrant church-wide discipline.
- B. Believers must reject "hatred ... jealousy, fits of rage, selfish ambition" (Gal. 5:20).

II. Divisions and factions that destroy Christian unity

- A. Romans 16:17 I urge you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and put obstacles in your way that are contrary to the teaching you have learned. Keep away from them.
- B. Titus 3:10-11 Warn a divisive person once, and then warn him a second time. After that, have nothing to do with him. ¹¹You may be sure that such a man is warped and sinful; he is self-condemned.
- C. 1 Corinthians 5:11 ... you must not associate with anyone who calls himself a brother but is... a slanderer... With such a man do not even eat.
- D. 3 John 1:9-10 I wrote to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first, will have nothing to do with us. ¹⁰So if I come, I will call attention to what he is doing, gossiping maliciously about us.
- E. Believers must reject "... discord, jealousy... dissensions, factions" (Gal. 5:20).

III. Moral and ethical deviations that break Christian law

- A. 1 Corinthians 5:11 ... you must not associate with anyone calls himself a brother but is sexually immoral or greedy ... or... a drunkard or a swindler. With such a man do not even eat.
- B. 1 Corinthians 6:1 If any of you has a dispute with another, dare he take it before the ungodly for judgment instead of before the saints? (The justified going to the unjustified for justice is certainly worthy of discipline!)
- C. 2 Thessalonians 3:6 In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, we command you, brothers, to keep away from every brother who is idle and does not live according to the teaching you received from us.
- D. Galatians 5:19 The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery.
- E. Ephesians 5:11 Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness, but rather expose them.
- F. Jude 4 For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

⁴ Adapted from Ted G. Kitchens, ThD Dissertation (Dallas Theological Seminary, 1989), 240; cf. idem, "Perimeters of Corrective Church Discipline," Bibliotheca Sacra 148 (April-June 1991): 201-13.

IV. Teaching false doctrines that reject essential Christian truth

- A. Titus 1:9-11 Every church leader “must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it. ¹⁰For there are many rebellious people, mere talkers and deceivers... ¹¹They must be silenced.”
- B. 1 Corinthians 5:11 ... you must not associate with anyone calls himself a brother but is... an idolater or.... With such a man do not even eat.
- C. 1 Timothy 1:20 Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan to be taught not to blaspheme.
- D. 2 Timothy 2:18b ...They say that the resurrection has already taken place, and they destroy the faith of some.

V. Do You Agree or Disagree?

To explore your ideas on this vital subject, please mark A, U, or D beside each statement below to show whether you Agree, are Unsure, or Disagree with the teaching.

- 1. A U D Telling others the truth and administering justice are more important than unity (the answer is in 1 Cor. 6:6-7).
- 2. A U D A church can deteriorate where discipline should not be enacted.
- 3. A U D A church leader who fears disciplining overt sin should be replaced.

VI. Conclusion

Very few church leaders today are committed and courageous to enact church discipline. This reflects either ignorance of God’s instructions or an unwillingness to follow them. In both cases, the leaders sin against the Lord and Christ’s body. Cancer untreated in one part of the body eventually kills the entire body.
