True Koinonia (Fellowship)

- "Fellowship of your faith" (v. 6)
- Fellowship involves participation
- Participation in Christ involves sharing and involvement with each other
- True fellowship means mutually participating in Christ → forgiveness and reconciliation
- True fellowship promotes the good of everyone
- It involves changing perceptions and acting accordingly

This letter has a good example of:

- 3 outstanding debts
- Powerful reversals
- Outcome

3 Outstanding Debts

Onesimus' Debt:

- He owed Philemon whatever he stole
- He owed Philemon his life
- Advice: Return to owner for due punishment

Paul's Debt:

- He owed Philemon value of each day's work lost
- Advice: Charge any debts Onesimus owed to my account; I will pay them

Philemon's Debt:

- He owed Paul his new life in Christ (19)
- Advice: Welcome the runaway slave as a brother; but do better than that—return him to me

Powerful Reversals

LES MISERABLES, Liam Neeson, 1998, was forgiven

What reasons does Paul give in this letter to show why forgiveness is important?

- 1. Forgiveness solidifies friendships (vv. 8-11, 17, 20).
- 2. Restored relationships make people more helpful to us (v. 11).
- 3. Forgiveness involves one's heart (v. 12).
- 4. The sacrifice that forgiveness requires is painful but good for us (vv. 13, 18-19a).
- 5. Forgiveness shows humility since it must be voluntary not forced (vv. 14, 21).
- 6. It reminds us that God has His hand in the events which cause us pain (vv. 15, 16).
- 7. Forgiving others reminds us of how God forgave us (v. 19b).

Authorship

246

External Evidence

The authenticity of Philemon was not questioned until objections were raised in the 4th century against its lack of doctrinal content. However, Jerome & Chrysostom vindicated the epistle & Pauline authorship has been universally held until the 19th century radical critics.

Internal Evidence

Paul refers to himself three times as author (vv. 1, 9, 19).

Philemon

Characteristics

246-247

This "New Testament postcard" is the shortest letter of Paul's epistles.

The letter to Philemon probably provides the clearest example of the need to demonstrate forgiveness in the New Testament. Onesimus' return to his owner was in effect a life to ask for, but he still did it.

This writing illustrates the nature of imputation better than any other. Paul requests that all of Onesimus' sin be placed not upon Onesimus but upon himself. In like manner Christ took the sin of humanity upon Himself.

Philemon

Circumstances

246

Date (fall AD 61)
Paul's 1st imprisonment in Rome is evident in parallels with the Colossian letter (cf. v. 23 with Col. 4:7-10)

Origin/Recipients
Philemon (v. 1b), a Christian slave owner in Colosse, is the main addressee, but others in his church are included too (v. 2).

Rome

Colosse

Occasion

During Paul's 1st imprisonment in Rome he led to Christ the fugitive slave of Philemon named Onesimus—who had done some injustices to & stolen from Philemon before he ran away. This letter to Philemon was sent with Onesimus to Colosse to convince Philemon to forgive Onesimus.

Perspectives

- Paul's short letter to Philemon demonstrates both the importance of forgiving offenders & also being forgiven as necessary decisions for walking with God.
- This views the letter from the perspective of both Onesimus and Philemon.
- The letter was not simply a personal correspondence to Philemon alone. It addresses others in the church and the uses the plural "you" in verse 25.

Postcard to
Philemon

. Characteristics .

To Philemon our dear friend and fellow worker, <sup>2</sup>to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow soldier and to the church that meets in your home:

<sup>3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God as I remember you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup>because I hear about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints. <sup>6</sup>I pray that you may be active in sharing your faith, so that you will have a full understanding of every good thing we have in Christ. <sup>7</sup>Your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because you, brother, have refreshed the hearts of the saints.

Paul's Plea for Onesimus

<sup>8</sup>Therefore, although in Christ I could be bold and order you to do what you ought to do, <sup>9</sup>yet I appeal to you on the basis of love. I then, as Paul—an old man and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus— <sup>10</sup>I appeal to you for my son Onesimus, who became my son while I was in chains. <sup>11</sup>Formerly he was useless to you, but now he has become useful both to you and to me.

<sup>12</sup>I am sending him—who is my very heart—back to you. <sup>13</sup>I would have liked to keep him with me so that he could take your place in helping me while I am in chains for the gospel. <sup>14</sup>But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that any favor you do will be spontaneous and not forced. <sup>15</sup>Perhaps the reason he was separated from you for a little while was that you might have him back for good— <sup>16</sup>no longer as a slave, but better than a slave, as a dear brother. He is very dear to me but even dearer to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. <sup>18</sup>If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me. <sup>19</sup>Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay it back—not to mention that you owe me your very self. <sup>20</sup>I do wish, brother, that I may have some benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ. <sup>21</sup>Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I ask.

<sup>22</sup>And one thing more: Prepare a guest room for me, because I hope to be restored to you in answer to your prayers.

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you greetings. <sup>24</sup>And so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke, my fellow workers.

Shortest letter of Paul's epistles (25 verses)

"This letter is from Paul, a prisoner for preaching the Good News about Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy. I am writing to Philemon, our beloved co-worker, <sup>2</sup>and to our sister Apphia, and to our fellow soldier Archippus, and to the church that meets in your house" (vv. 1-2 NLT).

"May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace"
(v. 3 NLT).

"I always thank my God when I pray for you, Philemon, <sup>5</sup>because I keep hearing about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people"
(vv. 4-5 NLT).

"And I am praying that you will put into action the generosity that comes from your faith as you understand and experience all the good things we have in Christ. <sup>7</sup>Your love has given me much joy and comfort, my brother, for your kindness has often refreshed the hearts of God's people" (vv. 6-7 NLT).

"That is why I am boldly asking a favor of you. I could demand it in the name of Christ because it is the right thing for you to do. <sup>9</sup>But because of our love, I prefer simply to ask you. Consider this as a request from me—Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus"

(vv. 8-9 NLT).

"I appeal to you to show kindness to my child, Onesimus. I became his father in the faith while here in prison.

<sup>11</sup>Onesimus hasn't been of much use to you in the past, but now he is very useful to both of us.

<sup>12</sup>I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart" (vv. 10-12 NLT).

"I wanted to keep him here with me while I am in these chains for preaching the Good News, and he would have helped me on your behalf.

<sup>14</sup>But I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I wanted you to help because you were willing, not because you were forced" (vv. 13-14 NLT).

"It seems you lost Onesimus for a little while so that you could have him back forever. <sup>16</sup>He is no longer like a slave to you. He is more than a slave, for he is a beloved brother, especially to me. Now he will mean much more to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord"
(vv. 15-16 NLT).

Verse 17

"So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me."

A man with a beard and a light-colored turban stands in a desert environment. He is wearing a dark, textured robe. The background is a blurred, sandy landscape. Overlaid on the image is a quote in white text with a black outline.

"If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me"
(v. 18 NLT).

"I, PAUL, WRITE THIS
WITH MY OWN
HAND: I WILL REPAY
IT. AND I WON'T
MENTION THAT YOU OWE ME YOUR VERY SOUL!" (v. 19 NLT).

"Yes, my brother, please do me this favor for the Lord's sake. Give me this encouragement in Christ. <sup>21</sup>I am confident as I write this letter that you will do what I ask and even more!"
(vv. 20-21 NLT).

"One more thing—please prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that God will answer your prayers and let me return to you soon" (v. 22 NLT).

The background of the image is a dark, almost black, textured surface. It features several horizontal bands of a lighter, distressed wood grain pattern, which appear to be layered or painted over the dark background. The wood grain is most prominent in the upper and lower sections of the image, with a darker, more uniform band in the middle. The overall effect is one of depth and texture, with the wood grain providing a natural, organic contrast to the dark, synthetic-looking background.

"Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. <sup>24</sup>So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my co-workers" (vv. 23-24 NLT).

"May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit" (v. 25 NLT).

III. Philemon teaches four principles on forgiveness.

A. True forgiveness is granted freely, not under compulsion (14).

"But I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I wanted you to help because you were willing, not because you were forced" (v. 14 NLT).

. Forgiveness.

Clear example of the need to demonstrate forgiveness in New Testament

If you sinned 3 times a day...

= 1000 sins each year

X 40 number of years

---

= 40,000 sins so far!

B. True forgiveness is the natural demonstration of our partnership in the gospel (17).

Verses 17-18

"So if you consider me a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me."

KEY VERSE

"This letter is from sister Apphia, and to our fellow soldier

Archippus, and to the church that meets in

(vv. 1-2 NLT).

"One more thing—please prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that God will answer your (plural) prayers and let me return to you (plural) soon" (v. 22 NLT).

"May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your (plural) spirit" (v. 25 NLT).

C. True forgiveness is unconditional without putting requirements on the other person (18-19).

Illustrates imputation:
Paul requests that all of Onesimus' sin be placed upon himself.

Verse 18:

"If he has done you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to me."

Conditional Forgiveness:

b. "I'll forgive—but I'll never forget..."

c. "I forgive you but don't expect me to change my attitude."

Philemon

"Forgiveness is...
surrendering my right to hurt you for hurting me"

D. True forgiveness "goes the second mile" (21).

"Yes, my brother, please do me this favor for the Lord's sake. Give me this encouragement in Christ. <sup>21</sup>I am confident as I write this letter that you will do what I ask and even more!" offend us...

Main Idea

A crown of thorns is draped over a wooden cross. The background is dark and textured, with faint, repeating text that reads "IT WAS AT THIS PLACE THAT THE LORD WAS CRUCIFIED FOR US".

We can forgive others when we see how God has forgiven us.

I. Treat people in the best possible light (1-7).

Philemon

II. Forgive so reconciliation transcends social barriers
(8-21).

Philemon

Whatever happened to Onesimus?

Did Philemon Forgive Onesimus?

- 1. Philemon preserved this epistle & allowed it to be circulated & copied—this would be highly unlikely if he didn't forgive Onesimus!
- 2. Paul expressed great confidence that Philemon would do more than even forgive Onesimus (v. 21)—perhaps free him?
- 3. Ignatius addressed the bishop in the nearby church in Ephesus about AD 115—and his name was Onesimus!

Bishop Onesimus (AD 115)

Corrie ten Boom

"Forgiveness is setting the prisoner free,
only to find out that the prisoner was me."

To whom do you best relate now?

1. Philemon the offended?
2. Onesimus the offender?
3. Paul the reconciler?
4. The church as affirmers?

Summary Statement

Paul requests the Christian slave owner, Philemon, to forgive his runaway but repentant slave, Onesimus, whom Paul led to Christ and sent back to Philemon to be received as a Christian brother and to teach forgiveness.

Does Christ break social chains?

Yes!

Does this letter teach slaves to overthrow their owners?

The Usual Application

It teaches the duty of slaves
to their masters
and of masters
to their slaves.

THE
VIEW

A New Approach

It "destroys slavery"

But Paul taught masters to treat slaves in a godly manner rather than him seeking to overthrow slavery. This is consistent with his teachings in his other epistles.

Characteristics

Paul and other NT writers recognize the existence of the slave and master relationship

Peter's advice on slavery

✓ 1 Peter 2:18-25

Paul's advice to slaves

✓ Eph. 6:5-8

✓ Col. 3:22-25

✓ 1 Tim. 6:1-2

Paul's advice to slave owners

✓ Eph. 6:19

✓ Col. 4:1

. Characteristics .

Christians must show love as the basis of all their relationships:

- ✓ Love regardless of the Christian status or otherwise of the other party.
- ✓ In the church all believers are sons and daughters of God and therefore brothers and sisters to one another.
- ✓ A slave is lifted from being a slave to being "more than a slave" — a brother who is loved.

Basic Steps to Gain a Forgiving Spirit

252

The Via Appia, "Queen of Roman roads," which was the road from Rome that Onesimus took back to Colossae for Philemon's forgiveness

1. Realize that God is working through the actions of your offender

2. Thank God for the benefit He plans through each offense

3. Discern what character qualities God wants to develop in you through the offense

4. Expect to suffer for doing right as a normal part of Christian living

Bill Gothard, IBLP

How do I ask forgiveness?

Never say, "I'm sorry"
(period/full stop).

Say, "Will you forgive me for
_____"

(specify your offense).

Philemon 11, 18

How do I ask forgiveness?

- Not by phone
- Not by letter
- Not by fax
- Not by text message
- Not by facebook
- Not by Twitter
- Not by email
- Not by mediators...

How do I ask forgiveness?

But by one simple word...

Go

How do I ask forgiveness?

Onesimus traveled 1400 km to speak to Philemon in person

How do I ask forgiveness?

Demonstrate humility without concern for saving face.

Philemon 1, 8-9, 14 (cf.
Gal. 6:1b, 3-4)

How do I ask forgiveness?

Remember that your response is not a private issue, but public, involving many people.

Philemon 1-2, 25 (plural)

How do I ask forgiveness?

Make the request for forgiveness as public as the offense.

- a. Public sins require public apology (1 Tim. 5:20)
- b. Private sins require private apology (Matt. 18:15)

Restoring Relationships

General Principle

Romans 12:18

"If it is possible, as far as it depends on you, live at peace with everyone."

For the Offender: GO!

Matthew 5:23-24

James 5:16

For the Offended: GO!

Matthew 18:15

Galatians 6:1

How We Become Like Those We Resent

Bill Gothard, Institute in Basic Life Principles

(1-3) Paul introduces himself as author with Timothy, addresses Philemon, his wife, his son & his house church, & wishes them God's grace & peace to set the tone for his following appeal for Onesimus.

(4-7) Paul prays for & commends the love & faith of Philemon in genuine thanksgiving to encourage Philemon to demonstrate these same qualities towards Onesimus, his runaway but repentant slave.

(8-21) Paul makes a general appeal to Philemon for mercy to be granted to Onesimus, cites reasons for sending him back to Philemon & makes a specific request that Onesimus be fully pardoned for his wrongdoing.

(22-25) Paul requests preparations for his anticipated visit, sends greetings from co-workers & blesses the church to reinforce the public nature of Philemon's decision & to remind of God's power for fulfilling his appeal.
