James

Key Verse

254

“Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says”
(1:22).

James

Early Jewish believers in the Roman world should show their faith through works to replace their hypocrisy with good deeds in maturity and holiness.

James

Kingdom Statement

27a

The readers were believers since they are deemed “brothers” (1:2, 16, 19; 2:1, 5, 14; 3:1, 10, 12; 4:11; 5:7, 9, 10, 12, 19). Their key need was to show Christ’s kingdom rule in their behavior.

James

Covenant

27a

The new covenant (church) community is called a “synagogue” (“meeting,” 2:2) since all early believers were Jews when this early letter was penned (1:1).

James

Redemption

27a

The words for “save” appear five times (1:21; 2:14; 4:12; 5:15, 20). None relate to salvation but instead “to save the life” from premature death.

James

Prophecy (Lord, Deity)

27a

The recipients had faith in “our Lord Jesus Christ” (2:1) but needed to put away their hypocritical, double-minded (1:8; 3:10) dispositions in order to grow in maturity and holiness. In effect the author says, “If Jesus is truly Lord, then act like it!”

Sozo in James

"Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you" (1:21 NIV).

We are not saved by God's Word but by faith in Christ. Yet the Bible preserves our lives from physical death. James wrote believers (1:1) so they were already saved from sin.

James uses sozo not for salvation but instead "to save the life" from premature death (Zane Hodges, The Epistle of James [Irving, TX: Grace Evangelical Society, 1994], 41).

Sozo in James

"What good is it, my brothers, if a man claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save him?" (2:14 NIV).

Paul is clear that we are not saved by faith plus deeds, nor are we saved by faith that is followed by deeds. Rather, our faith shows others that we are saved.

James uses sozo not for salvation but instead "to save the life" from premature death (Zane Hodges, The Epistle of James [Irving, TX: Grace Evangelical Society, 1994], 41).

Sozo in James

"There is only one Lawgiver and Judge, the one who is able to save and destroy. But you—who are you to judge your neighbor?" (4:12 NIV).

Death is contrasted with life here, not eternal punishment contrasted with eternal life. Thus, this verse tells us that God is the author of physical life.

James uses sozo not for salvation but instead “to save the life” from premature death (Zane Hodges, The Epistle of James [Irving, TX: Grace Evangelical Society, 1994], 41).

Sozo in James

"And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well; the Lord will raise him up. If he has sinned, he will be forgiven" (5:15 NIV).

Here sozo does not mean one will be saved from a salvation prayer but will have an extended life physically.

James uses sozo not for salvation but instead "to save the life" from premature death (Zane Hodges, The Epistle of James [Irving, TX: Grace Evangelical Society, 1994], 41).

Sozo in James

"Whoever turns a sinner from the error of his way will save him from death and cover over a multitude of sins" (5:20 NIV).

This restoring people means keeping them from premature physical death. This is paired with sins forgiven, showing the spiritual aspect in contrast to their extension of life.

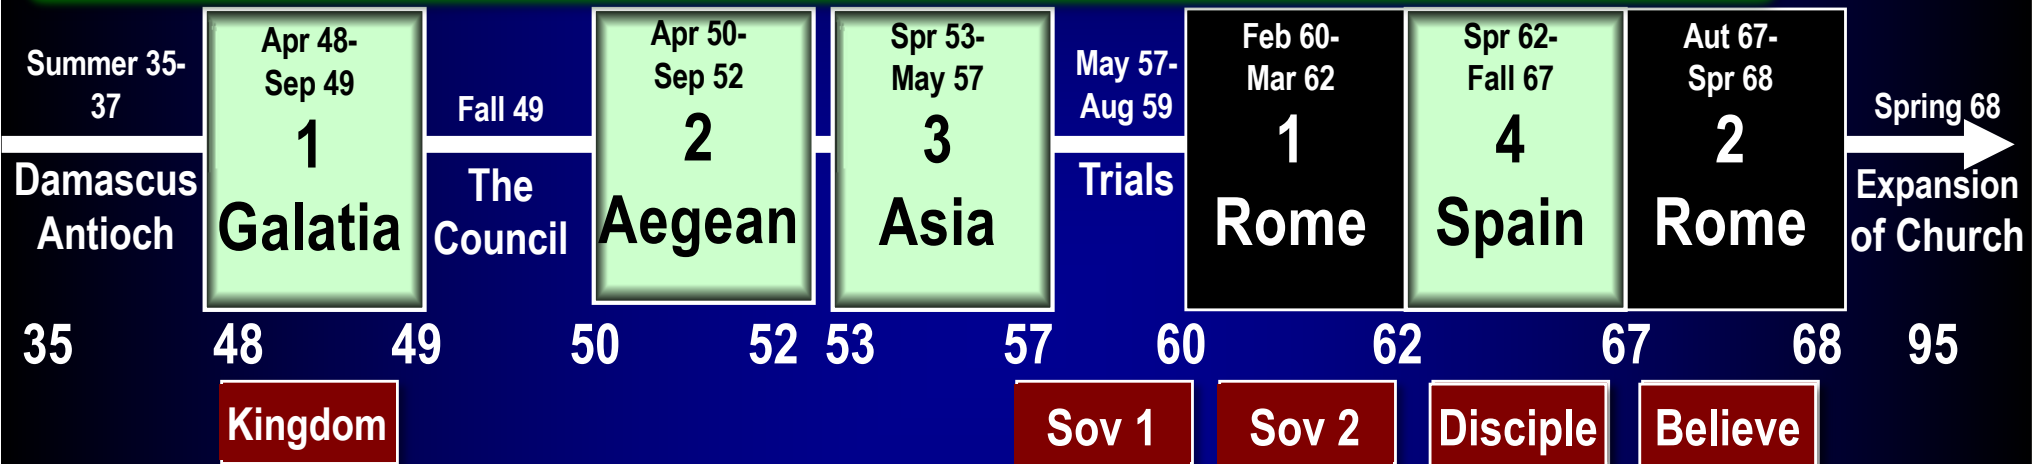

James uses sozo not for salvation but instead "to save the life" from premature death (Zane Hodges, The Epistle of James [Irving, TX: Grace Evangelical Society, 1994], 41).

Salvation in the Old Testament

173e

	OT Times (Moses to Christ's Death)	NT Times (Christ's Death to Today)
Basis of Salvation	God's gracious provision of the death of Christ since "it is the blood that makes atonement for one's life" (Lev. 17:11b)	God's gracious provision of the death of Christ ("without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness," Heb. 9:22)
Requirement of Salvation	Faith in the provision that God has revealed—as a gift (Ps. 51:16-17)	Faith in the provision that God has revealed—as a gift (Gal. 2:16)
Ultimate Content of Salvation	Object of faith is God Himself—prophets exhorted repentance, not sacrifices (Jer. 3:12)	Object of faith is God Himself—heroes of faith are cited to exhort faith in God (Heb. 11)
Specific Revealed Content of Salvation	Cumulative content of faith had sacrifices & promises: animals (Gen. 3:21), Abel's sacrifice (Gen. 4:4), Abrahamic covenant (Gen. 15)	New content of faith is the shed blood of Jesus Christ (1 Pet. 1:18-21) which removes sin while OT sacrifices merely covered sin
Believer's Expression of Salvation	Obey moral law, offer animal sacrifices, obey Mosaic law (civil and ceremonial aspects)	Obey moral law, observe Lord's Supper and baptism, etc. through the Spirit's enabling (Rom. 8:9)

Leviticus Synthesis

OTS, 124

Sanctification through sacrifice and separation

1-10 Sacrifice
(worshipping God)

11-27 Separation
(walking with God)

In Other Words...

Salvation has ALWAYS been through faith alone!

Do all true Christians die in fellowship with the Lord?

In other words, do all believers persevere in faith or can they sometimes fall away (not consider themselves Christian, not trust in God anymore, etc.)?

What is the key issue here?

Perseverance versus Free Grace

"Beware of false prophets who come disguised as harmless sheep but are really vicious wolves"
(Matthew 7:15)

Promised to Overcomers:
"I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown"
(Revelation 3:11 NLT).

What specific works noted in James do you consistently do that show you are a Christian?

Trials, Temptation and Sin

When Troubles Won't Go Away

A small, clear glass filled with a golden-brown liquid, possibly whiskey or honey, sits on a dark, heavily textured wooden surface. The wood has deep cracks and a natural, aged appearance.

James 1:2-18

The lower half of the image is split into two panels. The left panel shows a close-up of a hand in a prayer position, with fingers curled and thumb tucked, resting on the same wooden surface. The right panel shows a white, cylindrical steam diffuser or humidifier with a thick plume of white steam rising from it. A small green plant is visible behind the steam.

(Matthew 5:11 NIV).

How can you handle trials with joy?

5 ways

I. Realize that God's purpose is to build Christ in you (James 1:2-4).

Faith accepts trials with joy because it believes that God allows testing to develop perseverance and maturity (2-4).

What is the path from trials to joy?

James 1:2-4

"Dear brothers and sisters, when troubles come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy"
(James 1:2 NLT).

“Consider it all joy,
my brethren,

testing of your faith
produces endurance.
And let endurance

THE REALITY OF TRIALS

James 1:2

"... when you encounter various trials"

1. Trials (peirasmos) → Things external to us
2. Temptations to evil → From within (1:13-14)

Definition of suffering (Elizabeth Elliott):

- ☞ Having what you don't want
- ☞ Wanting what you don't have

THE WAY TO THINK ABOUT TRIALS

"Consider it all joy, my brethren"

- ◆ The people James addresses
 - ✓ Brethren = Believers (Mark 3:35)
 - ✓ James identifies with them/us 15 times
- ◆ The proper mindset
 - ✓ To "reckon" or "think" it to be so
 - ✓ This is a choice: a command to obey
- ◆ The proper attitude
 - ✓ All (pure) joy (the trial itself is not joyous)
 - ✓ Joy = settled contentment, regardless of your circumstances; a fruit of the Spirit

THE PURPOSE OF OUR TRIALS

(James 1:3)

- ◆ You already have some important knowledge (gained from personal experience)
- ◆ Trials are meant to test your faith
The testing (dokimion) is meant to prove the genuineness of your faith
- ◆ The result of this testing works to produce endurance (steadfastness)

tested me,
I shall come

A glowing crucible, likely made of metal, is the central focus. It is filled with a bright, molten substance, and the word "Pride" is written in a stylized, black font across its center. The crucible is surrounded by a ring of small, dark, irregular stones or pebbles. Above the crucible, a large, intense fire or flame is visible, with bright orange and yellow hues. The background is dark, making the fire and the glowing crucible stand out prominently.

A glowing crucible, likely made of metal, is shown in the center of the image. It is filled with a bright, orange-yellow liquid, possibly molten metal or lava. The words "Self-Dependence" are written in a black, serif font across the center of the crucible. The crucible is surrounded by a ring of dark, irregularly shaped stones or rocks. The background is dark and smoky, with a large, bright, orange-yellow flame or fire rising from behind the crucible, creating a dramatic and intense atmosphere. The overall image conveys a sense of purification and transformation.

Self-
Dependence

Job 23:10

“But He knows the

When He has
tested me,
I shall come

A glowing crucible, likely made of metal, is the central focus. It is filled with a bright, molten substance and has the word "Impatience" written in a black, handwritten-style font across its center. The crucible sits on a bed of glowing, orange-red coals or small stones. Above the crucible, bright orange and yellow flames rise, creating a dramatic, fiery atmosphere. The background is dark, making the fire and the glowing crucible stand out prominently.

So let it grow, and don't try to squirm out of your problems. II. Pray for wisdom in faith (James 1:5-8).

"If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. ⁶But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. ⁷Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. ⁸Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do" (James 1:5-8 NLT).

So how can we “let trials mature us”?

James 1:5-12

Main Idea:

Suffering will mature us if we trust in God's wisdom through it,
rather than our own!

Wisdom in Trials

- ✓ 1. What is wisdom?
- 2. How do we get wisdom?
- 3. What does wisdom look like in action?

How do we get Wisdom?

⁵ But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But he must ask in for the one who doubts. ⁷ For that person ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord, ⁸ being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

And do not lean on your own understanding.

And He will make your paths straight.

Wuest Translation

How do we get Wisdom?

⁵ But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

How do we get Wisdom?

“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you... If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!”

Matthew 7:7,11

So how do we ask for this Wisdom?

3. Ask in faith...

...om, let him ask of God, and without reproach, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ For that person ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord, ⁸ being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

Asking in Faith

Faith in the wisdom and character of God:

- Faith in God's willingness to give wisdom!
- Faith in God's way of dealing with my suffering – He knows what he's doing!
- Faith in God's motives in dealing with my suffering – He cares deeply about me!

So how do we ask for this Wisdom?

4. Ask without doubting...

...om, let him ask of God, and without reproach, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ For that person ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord, ⁸ being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

So how do we ask for this Wisdom?

Who is the doubter?

om, let him ask of God, and without reproach, and it will be given to him. ⁶ But he must ask in faith without any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea, driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷ For that person ought not to expect that he will receive anything from the Lord, ⁸ being a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

Who is the Doubter?

Double-Minded – This person...

- Is “two-souled” – Has their mind or soul divided between God and the world
- Is chasing happiness and fulfillment in this life
- Doubts that God knows best
- Faith and doubt are connected with loyalty!

Doubt vs. Faith

The doubter is someone of divided loyalty – not someone honestly struggling to believe in God's goodness.

The person of faith remains loyal to God – continuing to believe in his goodness, wisdom and love no matter what!

A Sample “Wisdom Prayer”

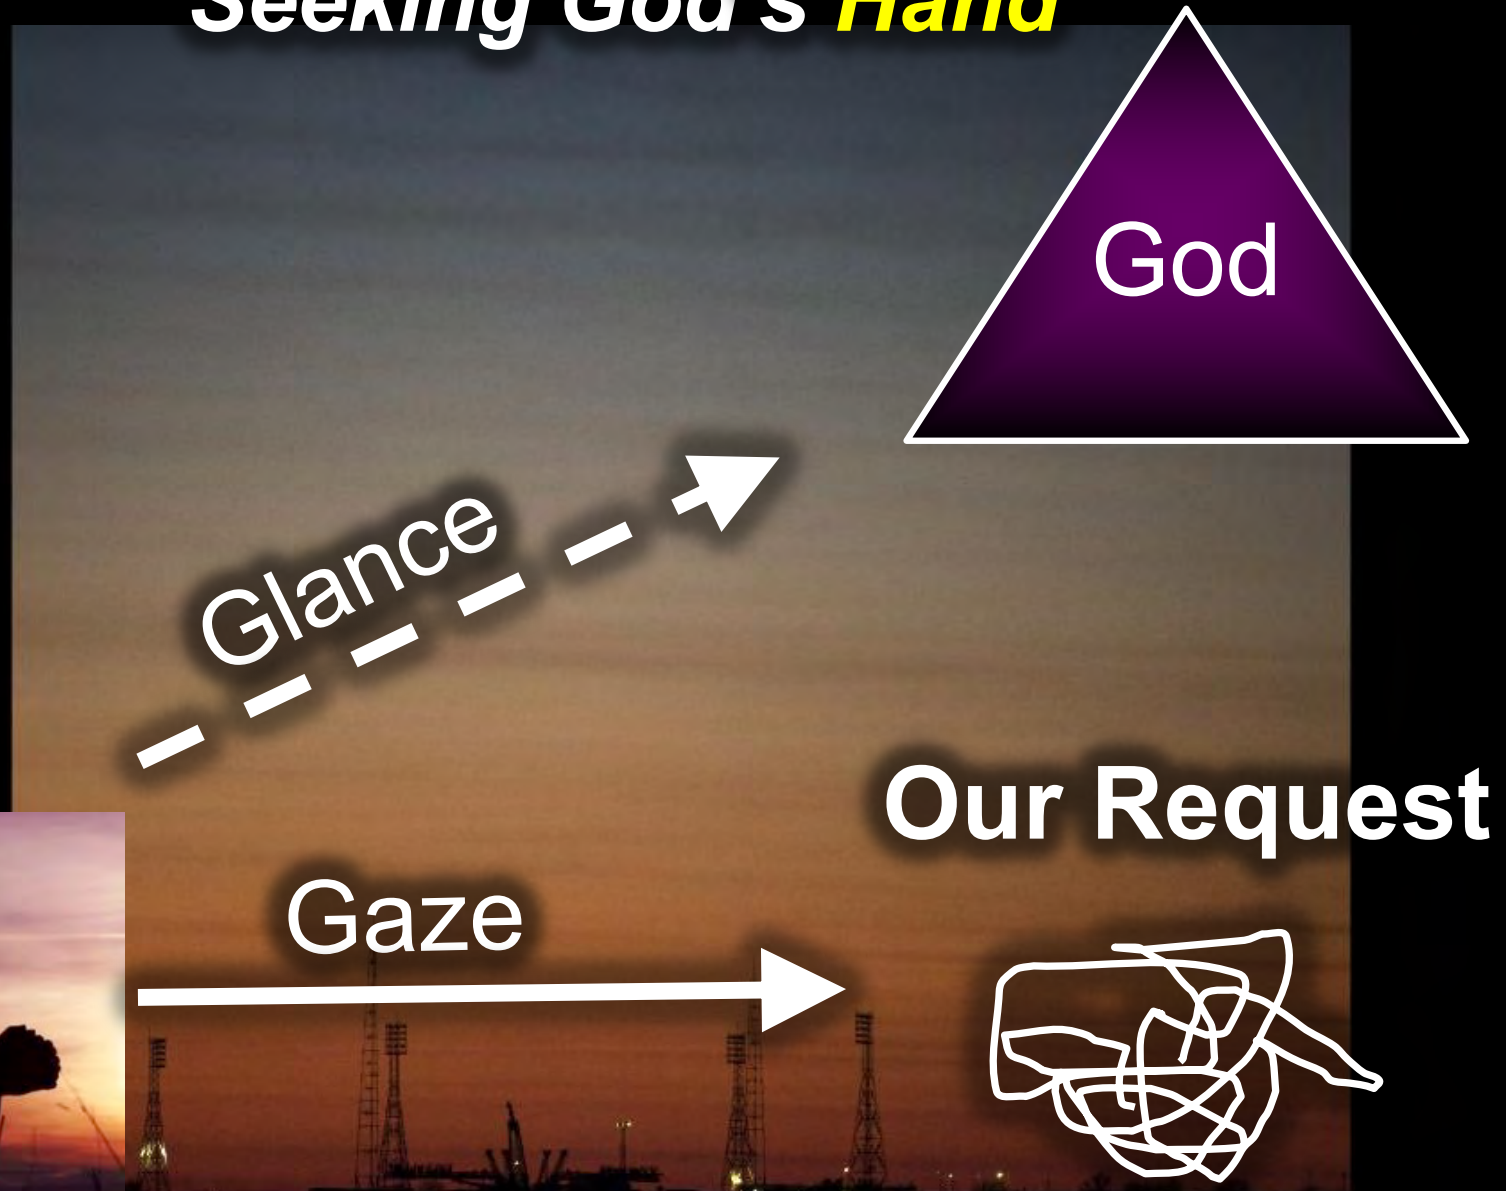

God, I

- Acknowledge my need for wisdom in this trial
- Trust that you know what you’re doing
- Ask for wisdom to know you in this trial and to see it as you see it
- I will remain loyal to you – to believe in your goodness, infinite wisdom and love, no matter how dark things get!

THE BLAME GAME

Genesis 3:1-13

Our excuses:

- ☞ Heritage
- ☞ Environment
- ☞ Passions
- ☞ Satan
- ☞ God

Ultimately:
You are to blame!

UNDERSTANDING TRIALS VS. TEMPTATIONS

Peirasmos: Two sides of the same coin

External difficulties/suffering. God uses them to:

- ✓ Prove your faith is genuine
- ✓ Build steadfastness
- ✓ Develop spiritual maturity

UNDERSTANDING TRIALS VS. TEMPTATIONS

Peirasmos: Two sides of the same coin

TEMPTATION

Inner solicitations to sin. Satan wants to:

- ✓ Turn your trials into temptations
- ✓ Entice you to sin so he can destroy you
- ✓ Deceive you into blaming God/others

UNDERSTANDING THE SOURCE OF TEMPTATIONS

James 1:13-14

Prov.
19:3

Temptations are not from God ("stop saying!")

1. God cannot be tempted (to sin)

Heb. 4:15 → Tempted, yet without sin

1 Sam. 2:2 → None holy as the Lord

2. God can never tempt anyone to sin

✓ He allows trials to build maturity

✓ God always provides a way out without sinning (1 Cor. 10:13)

TEMPTATIONS TO SIN COME FROM WITHIN

☞ You are being tempted by your own "lusts"

Epithumia = intense passions, longings, desires

✓ Good sense (Phil. 1:23)

✓ Bad sense (Mark 7:21-23)

A result of man's depravity; sinful nature
(Jer. 17:9; Gal. 5:17)

Each has unique vulnerabilities

☞ Your inner lusts are powerful

1) They drag you into temptation

2) They entice/entrap you to sin

(focus on pleasures; not consequences)

11 Simple, Profound Ways to Be Slow to Speak and Quick to Hear

Listen to the Word

"He chose to give us birth through the word of truth, that we might be a kind of firstfruits of all he created"
(James 1:18 NIV).

Be quick to listen

Be slow to

Be slow to become angry

"Human anger does not produce the righteousness God desires"
(James 1:20 NLT).

What is anger?

A man with long brown hair, wearing a green hooded sweatshirt over a blue shirt, is shown from the chest up. He has a very angry expression on his face, with furrowed brows, wide eyes, and a grimace showing his teeth. His hands are raised in front of him, palms facing forward, with fingers spread. He is sitting in a chair, with the back of the chair visible at the bottom left. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. In the bottom right corner, there is a small, dark electronic device on a surface.

that stems from seeing someone's rights violated

A dramatic scene of Jesus with long dark hair and a beard, wearing a white robe, tearing at a white cloth. In the background, a man in a brown robe is visible. The scene is set in a temple with stone walls.

Results of Sinful Anger

"So get rid of all the filth and evil in your lives, and humbly accept the word God has planted in your hearts, for it has the power to save your souls"
(James 1:21 NLT).

"I made a covenant with my eyes not to look with lust at a young woman."

Job 31:1 NLT

Jealousy

A young woman with long brown hair is seated at a wooden table, looking off to the side with a jealous and angry expression. Her arms are crossed. In the background, several other people are seated at the same table, but they are out of focus. The scene appears to be a social gathering in a casual setting.

"Anger is cruel and fury overwhelming, but who can stand before jealousy?"

I. Prepare to accept what the Bible says (1:19-21).

How can you let God's Word take root in you?

II. Don't just listen to the Word —obey it (1:22-25)!

Listening ≠ Obeying

The Danger of Listening to Sermons

James 1:19-27

"For if you listen to the word and don't obey, it is like glancing at your face in a mirror. ²⁴ You see yourself, walk away, and forget what you look like. ²⁵ But if you look carefully into the perfect law that sets you free, and if you do what it says and don't forget what you have seen, you will be blessed in what you do" (1:23-25 NLT).

"If you claim to be religious but don't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and your religion is worthless.
²⁷ Pure and genuine religion in the sight of God the Father means caring for orphans and widows in their distress and refusing to let the world corrupt you" (James 1:26-27 NLT).

James: Flavoring the rich!

James 2:1
Don't favor
the rich!

"My brothers, as believers
in our Lord Jesus Christ,
don't show favoritism."

Do You Agree?

1. Our church should have only locals on certain committees.

2. Church leaders must be at least a high school graduate.

3. Our pastor should be a foreigner.

4. It's OK to reserve better seats at church for certain people.

5. Pastors from the West should earn more than locals with equal experience and roles.

Favoritism

Other Examples?

What other examples of favoritism do you sometimes see in the church?

WHY NOT FAVOR THE RICH?

- 5 REASONS

Our outline of James 2...

Favoring the rich...

1. Indicates impure motives (2-4)

James 2:2-4 NIV

- Suppose a man comes into your meeting wearing a gold ring and fine clothes, and a poor man in shabby clothes also comes in. ³ If you show special attention to the man wearing fine clothes and say, “Here’s a good seat for you,” but say to the poor man, “You stand there” or “Sit on the floor by my feet,” ⁴ have you not discriminated among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

My brothers,
as believers in our glorious
Lord Jesus Christ, don't show
favoritism.
—James 2:1

Christ Church, Philadelphia

Christ Church, Philadelphia

Evil Thoughts

Some of that money may spill my way!

Will he leave the church?

Maybe I'll need to leave the church!

What is favoritism?

- "preferential treatment, especially when unjust or narrowly discriminating" (Funk & Wagnalls)
- to treat another person based upon his financial status and from an improper motive (James 2:4)

Favoring the rich...

1. Indicates impure motives (2-4)
2. Insults the poor (5-6a)

James 2:5-6a NIV

- Listen, my dear brothers: Has not God chosen those who are poor in the eyes of the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom he promised those who love him? ⁶ But you have insulted the poor.

Favoring the rich...

1. Indicates impure motives (2-4)
2. Insults the poor (5-6a)
3. Indulges oppressors (6b-7)
4. Is selfish (8-11)

James 2:8-11 NIV

- If you really keep the royal law found in Scripture, “Love your neighbor as yourself,” you are doing right. ⁹ But if you show favoritism, you sin and are convicted by the law as lawbreakers. ¹⁰ For whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it. ¹¹ For he who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not murder.” If you do not commit adultery but do commit murder, you have become a lawbreaker.

The Royal Law

"Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself. I am the LORD"
(Leviticus 19:18 NIV).

Red Behind You

Favoring the rich...

1. Indicates impure motives (2-4)
2. Insults the poor (5-6a)
3. Indulges oppressors (6b-7)
4. Is selfish (8-11)
5. Incurs God's judgment (12-13)

James 2:12-13 NIV

- Speak and act as those who are going to be judged by the law that gives freedom, ¹³ because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment!

The Main Idea:

Don't prefer the wealthy when God prefers the needy

Favoring the rich...

May I probe?

1. Do you treat people alike—rich or poor? Or do you give the wealthy special attention?
2. Whom do you invite for lunch or dinner? Is it always someone who's equal or better off than you financially?
3. Do you show kindness to those who can't reciprocate?
4. Do you love and serve the more needy in this church? Or is your time absorbed by the others?

Your Action Plan:

- 1. What area of prejudice do you see in your life through this study?
- 2. How can you resolve any problems that your prejudice may have caused?
- 3. How can you avoid this kind of favoritism in the future?

James 2:1-13

- A. Faith is not a respecter of persons by separating rich and poor (2:1-4).
- B. Faith recognizes that those materially poor in this life will be rich in the next (2:5-7) .
- C. Faith responds equally to all men in obedience to the law which commands love of others as much as love for self (2:8-13) .

True Faith

James 2:14-26

Adapted from Dan Bridges • Amman International Church

What do we do when the Bible seems to contradict itself???

James 2:24 “...a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.”
(James)

Romans 3:28 “...a man is justified by faith apart from works of the law.”
(Paul)

Handling Seeming Contradictions

- We assume our understanding is the problem!
- We work to understand, trusting that God will open our eyes to the truth.
- Context, context, context!
- Don't let the problem distract us!

For this Passage...

- Was a disagreement between them likely?
- Context of the passages:
 - Who were their audiences?
 - The point that the author is making
- Definitions of terms (e.g. faith, justified)

A close-up photograph of two hands, one from a darker-skinned person and one from a lighter-skinned person, shaking in a firm grip. The background is a plain, light-colored surface.

Any Reason to Believe Paul and James Disagreed on this?

They were together (peacefully!) at least 3 times:

- About 3 years after Paul's conversion (Gal 1:19-20)
- Later Paul confirmed to the apostles that they taught the same theology; James affirmed so (Gal 2:1-2, 9)
- Just before Paul's arrest, he shared what God was doing among the Gentiles (Acts 21:17-20)

Paul's Audience

- Gentiles who believed in Jesus as the Messiah
- Jews who were observing these Gentiles

Paul's Context

Jews were telling Gentile believers that they needed to follow the Jewish law in order to be saved from sin.

Paul's Goal in Writing

Paul wanted to convince both the Gentiles and the Jews that following the Jewish ceremonial law was not required for salvation.

Paul's Definition of Faith

What would you say Paul's definition of faith was when he said that we are "justified by faith and not by works of the law"?

Paul's Definition of Faith

- Belief that all have sinned and deserve condemnation
- Trust in the death of Jesus as being sufficient to pay for sin

James' Audience - Jews

- Importance of the creed (Shema)
- Believed in Jesus as the Messiah

James' Context

James 2:1-13

These Jews were neglecting, among other things, the second commandment – to love your neighbor as yourself. As Jesus said, they were “neglecting the weightier matters of the law: justice, mercy and faithfulness” (Matt 23:23)

James' Goal in Writing

James wanted his audience to see that if they continued to neglect the second commandment, it showed that they weren't proving to follow Jesus – even if they claimed they were.

James' Definition of Faith

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him?

How would you say James is defining “faith” here?

James' Definition of Faith

James seems to define
"someone's" faith as:

- Intellectual assent to the creed
- Intellectual assent to Jesus as the Messiah
- Absence of "works"

"Can that [type of] faith save him?" James 2:14

James 2:24 “...a man is justified by works and not by faith alone.”
(James)

Romans 3:28 “...a man is justified by faith apart from works of the law.”
(Paul)

The Danger for Us...

We can get so caught up in the seeming contradiction that we forget to see what James has to say to us!

James is not defining the terms of salvation – he is defining what true, living faith really is!

James 2:14-17

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? ¹⁵ If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, ¹⁶ and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? ¹⁷ So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

James 2:14-17

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? ¹⁵ If lacking in that? ¹⁷ So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

James agrees that we are saved by faith. What he is talking about is the definition of true, saving faith.

Things James Was Concerned About

- People not living by the Word (1:22)
- Widows, orphans and poor being neglected and mistreated (1:27, 2:1-13)
- Rich oppressing the poor (2:6)
- People competing for importance (3:1-18)
- People cursing each other & fighting (3:10, 4:1)
- People living arrogantly (4:6-17)

How do you know if you have a living faith?

- First... A Word of Warning
- Three Characteristics of a Living Faith

A Word of Warning...

“You believe that God is one; you do well.
Even the demons believe—and shudder!”

James 2:19

Demonic Faith

- Demons believe in God (accurately!)
- Demons respect the power and greatness of God
- Demons are afraid of God
- Demons hate God

“Shuddering Obedience”

“He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, ‘Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed, so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.’”

Matthew 25:24-25

Demonic Faith

We can alter our behavior and live out good, moral lives because we are afraid of what God will do to us if we don't.

Jesus' Criticism of Religious Practices

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.” Matthew 23:23

Lesson from the Demons

You can have good theology and live a moral life and still not have a living faith that will save you...

True, Spirit-Initiated Love

One of the most basic fruits that should be evident in any believer's life is love.

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.”

1 John 3:16-18

¹⁶ By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. ¹⁷ But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? ¹⁸ Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? – Unless indeed you fail to meet the test!

Is your heart spiritually alive?

Do all true Christians die in fellowship with the Lord?

In other words, do all believers persevere in faith or can they sometimes fall away (not consider themselves Christian, not trust in God anymore, etc.)?

What is the key issue here?

What is meant by “perseverance of the saints”?

“I assert...that the perseverance by which we persevere in Christ
even to the end is the gift of God”

“It is uncertain whether anyone has received this gift so long as he is still alive”
—referring to the gift of being elect and finally persevering

Both quotes from Augustine, Anti-Pelagian Works, 15:172

The Synod of Dort (1619) supported perseverance

“By such enormous sins, however, they very highly offend God, incur a deadly guilt, grieve the Holy Spirit, interrupt the exercise of faith, very grievously wound their consciences, and sometimes lose the sense of God’s favor, for a time, until on their returning into the right way by serious repentance, the light of God’s fatherly countenance again shines upon them.”

Philip Schaff, "The Canons of the Synod of Dort," in The Creeds of Christendom: The Evangelical Protestant Creed (Grand Rapids: Baker, 1985), 3:593 (5.5)

The Westminster Confession (1646) supported perseverance

“They whom God hath accepted in His Beloved, effectually called and sanctified by His Spirit, can neither totally nor finally fall away from the state of grace; but shall certainly persevere therein to the end, and be eternally saved.”

Philip Schaff, "The Westminster Confession of Faith," in History of the Christian Church, 8 vols. (Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 1910), 3:636 (17.1)

Reformed Theologian John Gerstner supports perseverance

“Theologically speaking, it refers to the fifth point of the Calvinistic doctrinal system that true Christians will continue in faith and holiness forever. Thus Jonathan Edwards finds the very definition of a Christian to be, according to John 8:31, one who continues in the Word of Christ.”

John Gerstner, "Perseverance," in Baker's Dictionary of Theology, ed. Everett F. Harrison (Grand Rapids: Baker Book House, 1960), 403-4

Perseverance versus Free Grace

"Therefore, my brothers, be all the more eager to make your calling and election sure. ¹¹For if you do these things, you will never fall, and you will receive a rich welcome
into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior
Jesus Christ"
(2 Petet 1:10-11)

Promised to Overcomers:
"I am coming soon. Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown"
(Revelation 3:11 NLT).

Theology of James

I. Christ, the Lord of Community

A. Christology: Jesus is our glorious Lord and Judge (2:1).

B. The Law: The Mosaic Law has been fulfilled in Christ, but believers should obey the law of Christ.

C. Last Days: Jesus is coming again and will judge all people.

Theology of James

II. Christian Living In Community

- A. Sin, Suffering and Submission: By God's sovereign grace, suffering is a joyful opportunity for us to be molded into maturity.
- B. Faith and Works: Obedience to Jesus' moral law is not obedience apart from faith.
- C. Wisdom: Wisdom is God's gift to believers in community for peace in times of adversity.
- D. Prayer: Prayer must be based on faith in God so believers will have needs met for wisdom, material needs, and physical needs.

The Apparent Contradiction Between Paul and James on Faith and Works

"For we maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from observing the law" (Romans 3:28)

"In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead"
(James 2:17)

"...a man is not justified by observing the law but by faith in Jesus Christ..."
(Galatians 2:16)

"You see that a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone"
(James 2:24)

Martin Luther and James

James "contradicted" Paul
James is "a right strawy epistle"
James shouldn't be in the Bible

Two Proposed Ways to Reconcile Romans 3 and James 2

1. James wrote this to criticize Paul's teaching on faith
2. James wrote before Paul began his writing career.

* Some scholars (Davids, Adamson, Hiebert, and Kristemaker) say James is an early book. James probably draws more from oral tradition than other NT books, so he reflects early church beliefs which accounts for the ethical, rather than theological focus. Still, other scholars suggest a later date and others even claim a two-stage development.

Overview of 2:14-26

2:14-26 Faith and Deeds: Theological Unity

2:14-18 James's Main Concern: Faith that Works

2:19-26 3 Examples: Demons, Abraham, Rahab

From the demonstration of love through equal treatment, James calls them to demonstrate faith by extending practical and tangible assistance to those in need. He gives examples of true faith demonstrated in good deeds. Idle faith that does not reveal itself in works is hypocritical, unproductive and dead.

"In the same way,
faith by itself,
if it is not accompanied by action,
is dead."

If we are justified by faith alone, then what is the role of works?

- Paul addresses one question: How is salvation experienced?
- By faith alone (Romans 3:28)
- simple belief
- James answers a different question: How is true and saving faith recognized?
- By faith's fruits (James 2:14-26)
- Belief simply shown through works

Romans Versus James

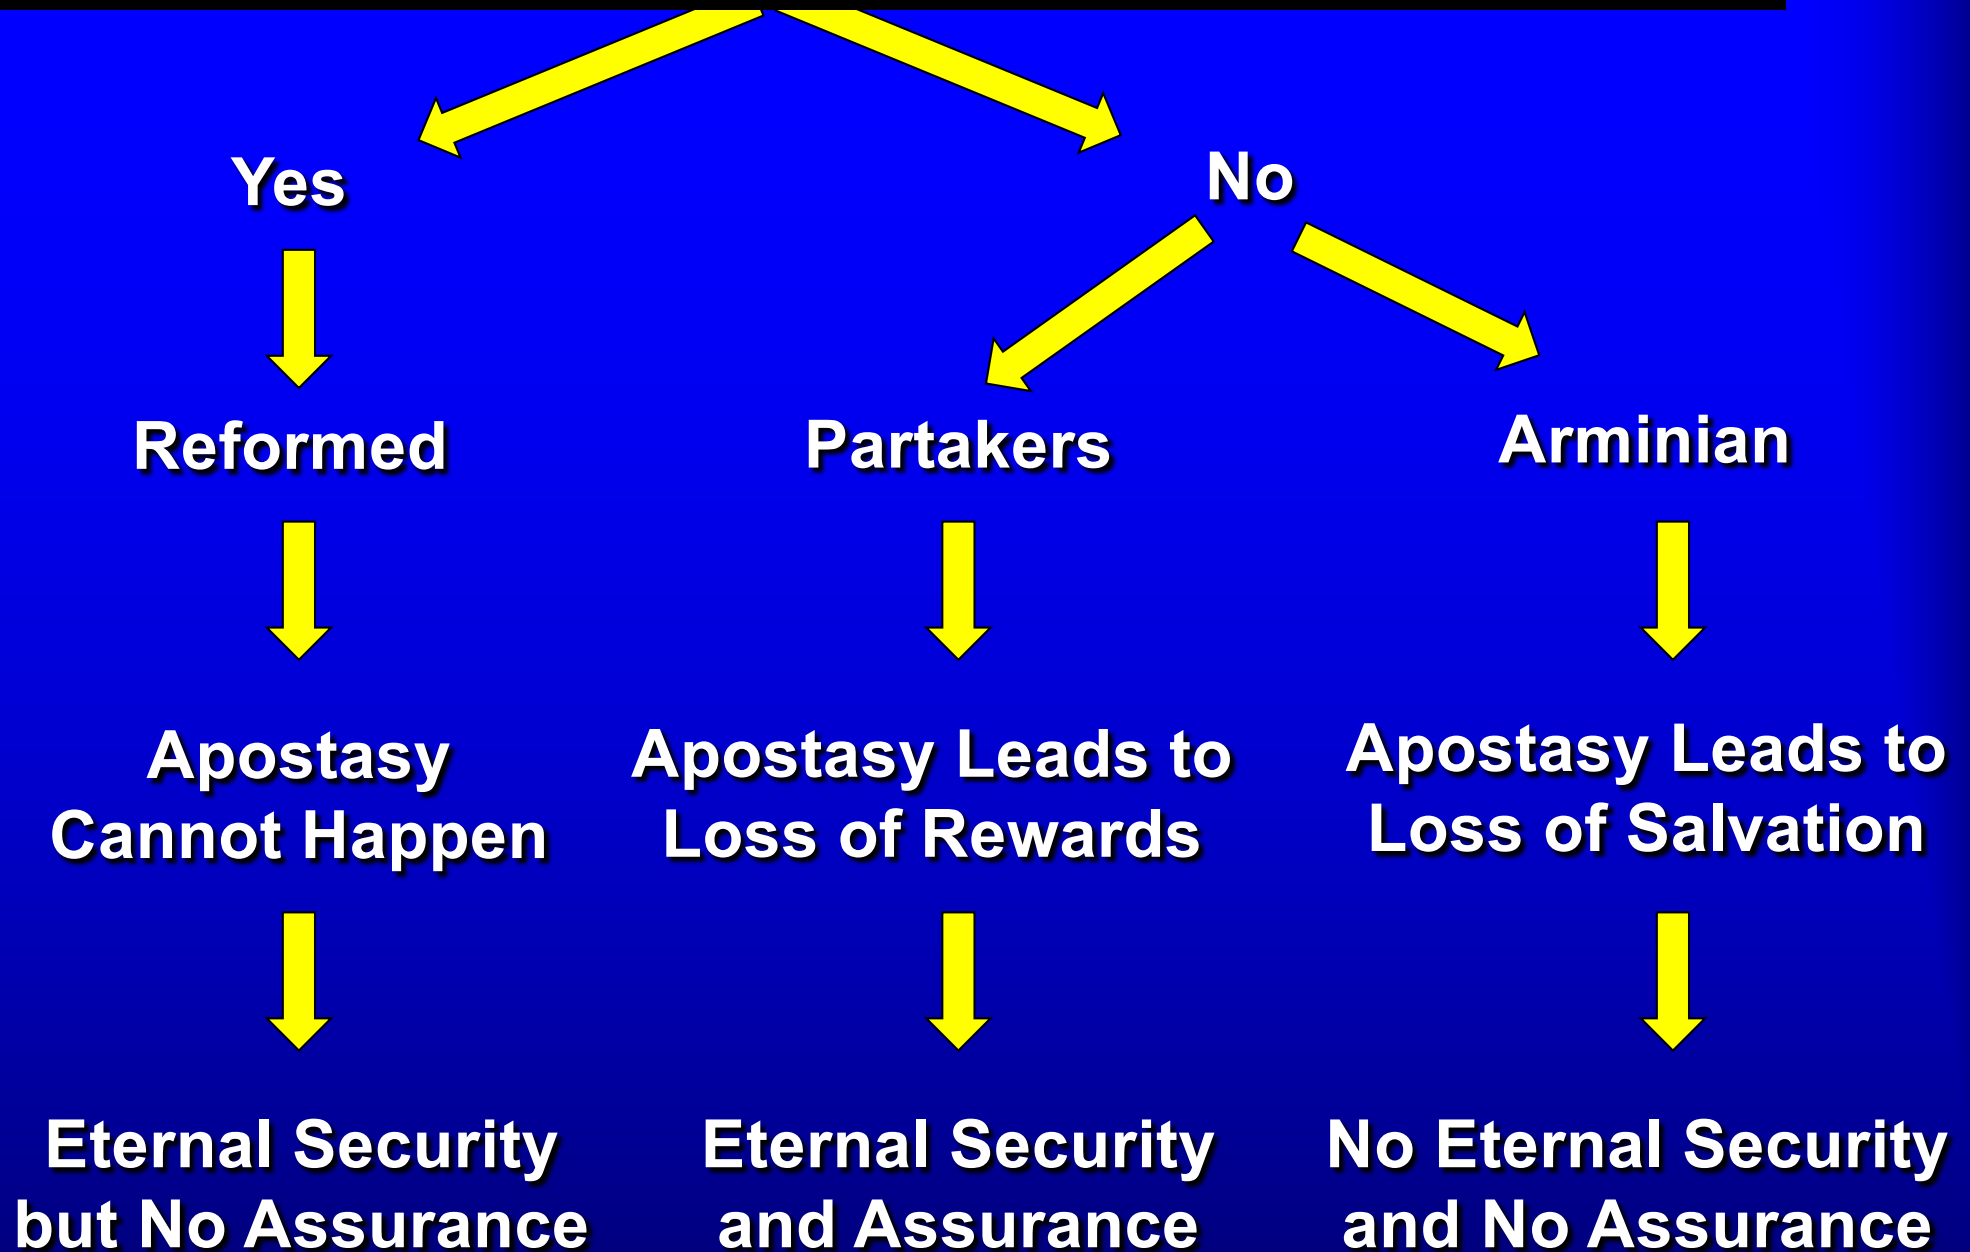

Book	Romans	James
Author	Paul	James
Date	A.D. 56	A.D. 44-48
Justification is a	technical term	non-technical term
Justification is before	God (vertical)	Man (horizontal)
The faith is	at beginning of salvation	after salvation
Emphasis is upon	faith	works

The Main Idea of James 2:14-26

Others see genuine faith in works!

Will each genuine Christian persevere in faithfulness at death?
