Sheep tend to stray.

1 John

How can you avoid straying into false teaching?

1 John

I. Obey God's commands (1-2).

Believe in Christ's humanity for fellowship and joy (1:1-4).

Depend on Jesus (1:5-2:14).

Avoid two hindrances to obedience to fight early Gnosticism (2:15-29).

1 John

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

Don't hate believers (3:11-15)

Show compassion (3:16-20)

Be confident before God (3:21-24)

Obey apostolic teaching (4:1-6)

Care for believers (4:7-21)

Obey God's commands (5:1-3)

1 John

III. Realize that obedience produces what you really need (5:4-21).

Benefits of Obedience:

Victory over the world system (5:4-5)

Assurance of salvation (5:6-13)

Guidance in prayer (5:14-17)

Freedom from habitual sin (5:18-20)

Fidelity to God by avoiding idolatry
(5:21)

1 John

Main Idea of the Letter

Obey God and love others and you'll have what you really need instead of false teaching.

1 John

- How can you show love to another believer so that heresy might be thwarted?
- Whom do you know that needs to see Christian love shown in order to turn from false teaching?

The Greek title (Ἰωάννου ἁ First of John) follows the standard practice of naming the General
Epistles after their authors and distinguishes this epistle from John's two others.

John the Apostle

"Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. ⁴They were both running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first" (John 20:3-4 NLT).

External Evidence

The letter of 1 John is the best attested of all the General Epistles.

1. The evidence for Johannine authorship is very early after its composition, beginning with John's contemporary for 20 years, Polycarp. Irenaeus quoted John's epistle and credited John with the work. Many other Church Fathers also accepted Johannine authorship: Clement of Alexandria (AD 155-215), Tertullian (AD 150-222), Origen (AD 185-253), Cyprian (AD 200-258) and all Latin and Greek Fathers. The Muratorian Canon and Old Syriac Version also attributed 1 John to John.

External Evidence

The letter of 1 John is the best attested of all the General Epistles.

The major opposing views are:

- (a) that a 2nd "John" penned the epistle who was known either as "John the Elder" or possibly "John the Presbyter," and
- (b) that a disciple of John wrote the book. In one statement, Papias seems to make a distinction between "John the Elder" and "John the Apostle"; however, elsewhere he uses the term "elder" to refer to the original apostles, so the "two men" should be interpreted as one and the same.

Internal Evidence

- The epistle itself supports the strong tradition for Johannine authorship.
- He is not mentioned by name, but he is an eyewitness (1:1-4) with great authority shown in his assertiveness (2:19; 4:6, 14).
- The style is also very similar to that of the 4th Gospel.

ESV 1 John 1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life.

- ❖ Most conservative scholars date 1 John from AD 80-97 and liberals date it soon after AD 90-110.
- ❖ The epistle does not mention any persecution, which lasted during Domitian's reign (AD 81-96).
- ❖ This may suggest a date just before AD 81 or after AD 96. At any rate, John was a old man in his eighties or older when he wrote.
- ❖ This course uses a date of AD 85-95 as it likely preceded Revelation (AD 95-96).

The admonition to keep oneself from idols (5:21) substantiates the tradition of John writing from Ephesus since idols were prominent in the pagan Greco-Roman culture but rare in Palestine.

Although Gnosticism did not develop into its worst form until the 2nd century, an early form of Gnosticism is evident in this letter.

Gnosticism had two basic heretical elements:

1. the exaltation of intellect (gnosis), and
2. the belief that matter is inherently evil.

John combats two forms of Gnostic teaching in his letter:

Docetic Gnosticism denied the humanity of Christ (4:2-3), saying that he only seemed to be human, so John wrote that he actually touched Jesus (1:1).

Cerinthian Gnosticism denied the deity of Christ. Cerinthus, who lived near John in Asia Minor, taught that Jesus was only a man upon whom "the Christ" descended at His baptism but left before His crucifixion. John replied that Jesus Christ came both by water (His baptism) and by blood (His death), thus refuting Cerinthus (5:7).

The practical outworking of Gnosticism fell into two camps.

Some Gnostics reasoned that since matter is evil, one should avoid it at all costs, resulting in asceticism—living alone like a monk untouched by material things.

In his letter John attempts to defeat asceticism by encouraging fellowship among believers (1:7).

Other Gnostics were fatalistic. They reasoned that no one can change the fact that matter is evil, so any type of immorality is OK.

John specifically responded to this latter philosophy. His letter shows that obedience to God's commands, especially by loving others, is the best rebuttal to the practices of Gnosticism. He also sought to defeat immorality by exhorting obedience and righteousness.

Characteristics

292

- Absolute statements (e.g., 3:6).
- Abiding in Christ is clearly seen as obeying God's commands and loving one's brothers (2:28–4:16).
- Teaching by contrast (antithetical parallelism) is abundant as John sees everything as black or white.
- The style is very simple but profound in meaning. Concepts are frequently repeated, but not monotonously.
- It surprisingly has not one Old Testament quotation and only one incident (Cain, 3:12).

Summary Statement

John writes a general letter encouraging his readers to obey God's commands by loving others in order to protect them from early Gnosticism that denied either Christ's deity or humanity.

I. One way to be protected from early Gnosticism was to obey God's commands (1 John 1–2) .

II. Another way to be protected from early Gnosticism was to love others (3:1–5:3).

III. The benefit of obedience is what we really need instead of early Gnosticism (5:4-21).

John's letter has at least five stated purposes:

293

1. to promote fellowship (1:3),
2. to produce joy (1:4),
3. to protect holiness (2:1),
4. to prevent heresy (2:26)

Argument

The Gospel of Judas

- Judas said, "Master, could it be that my seed is under the control of the rulers?" Jesus answered and said to him, "... you will grieve much when you see the kingdom and all its generation." When he heard this, Judas said to him, "What good is it that I have received it? For you have set me apart for that generation." Jesus answered and said, "You will become the thirteenth, and you will be cursed by the other generations—and you will come to rule over them. In the last days they will curse your ascent [47] to the holy [generation]."

The Gospel of Judas

- Judas said to Jesus, "Look, what will those who have been baptized in your name do?" Jesus said, "... Truly [I] say to you, Judas, [those who] offer sacrifices to Saklas [...] God [—three lines missing—] everything that is evil. But you will exceed all of them. For you will sacrifice the man that clothes me."

Irenaeus (AD 180)

Against Heresies
1.31.1

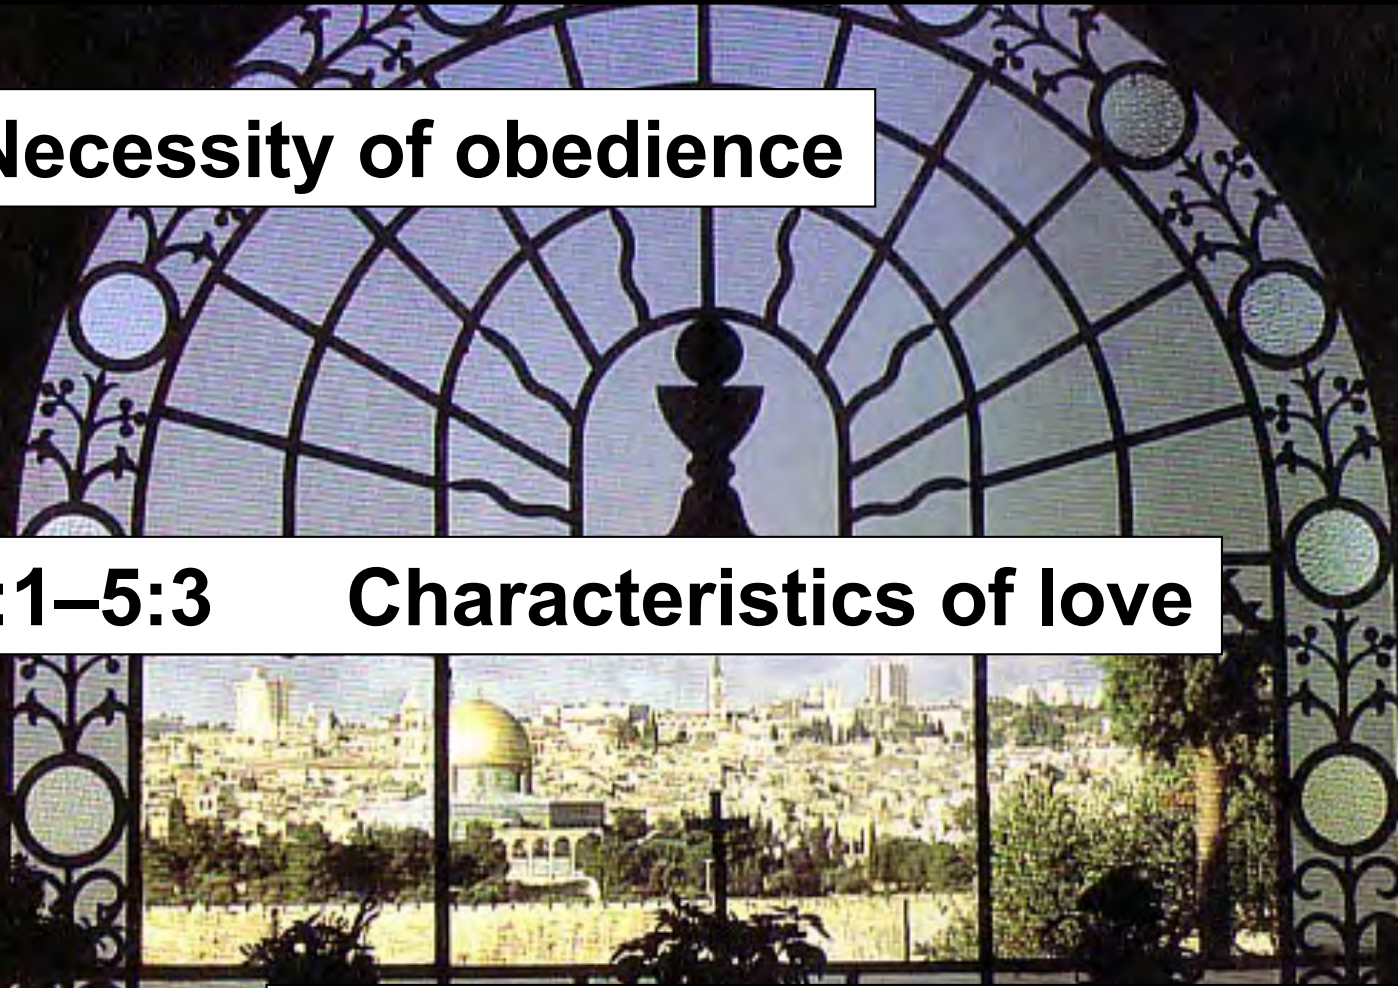

1. Others again declare that Cain derived his being from the Power above, and acknowledge that Esau, Korah, the Sodomites, and all such persons, are related to themselves. On this account, they add, they have been assailed by the Creator, yet no one of them has suffered injury. For Sophia was in the habit of carrying off that which belonged to her from them to herself. They declare that Judas the traitor was thoroughly acquainted with these things, and that he alone, knowing the truth as no others did, accomplished the mystery of the betrayal; by him all things, both earthly and heavenly, were thus thrown into confusion. They produce a fictitious history of this kind, which they style the Gospel of Judas.

1. to promote fellowship (1:3),

Argument

- This makes 1 John hard to sum up in one theme or purpose and difficult to outline, especially since the subjects overlap.
- But the general theme of obedience, especially shown by loving others, sums up all of the above purposes.
- These benefits are many, but the immediate benefit of obedience by love is its protection from early Gnosticism.

(1 John 2:18-19 NLT).

- What is the relationship of the anointing of the Spirit to indwelling?

Controversial Issues about the Indwelling of the Holy Spirit

The Anointing of the Spirit

*"Now it is God who makes both us and you stand firm in Christ. He anointed us, ²²set his seal of ownership on us, and put his Spirit in our hearts as a deposit, guaranteeing what is to come"
(2 Cor. 1:21-22 NIV)*

The Anointing of the Spirit

"But you have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you know the truth...²⁷ As for you, the anointing you received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and as that anointing is real, not counterfeit—just as it has taught you, remain in him" (1 John 2:20, 27)

Ryrie on the Anointing

"The difference between the anointing and indwelling seems to lie in their distinct purposes. The indwelling brings the presence of God into the life of the believer. The anointing, as far as the believer is concerned, is that he might be taught (1 John 2:20, 27). Actually, this seems to be the only purpose specified in the believer's case.

Ryrie on the Anointing

"However, if one may use the example of the anointing of Christ [Luke 4:18; Acts 4:27; 10:38; Heb. 1:9] and of Old Testament priests [Exod. 30:32-33; cf. kings 1 Sam. 10:1; Zech 4:14], then another purpose emerges—that of service. But...the full experience of the anointing depends on being filled with the Spirit"

*(Ryrie, The Holy Spirit, 73).*

“Take a few moments and imagine a religion where Jesus did not come to die on the cross, where there is no heaven, no hell, no sin, no salvation, no doctrine, where all spiritual paths in the world are equally valid and where ‘god’ is in you and in everything else you see.

That is the religion of Oprah Winfrey.

It is also the New Age ‘one world religion’ that many other spiritual gurus throughout the world have been trying to bring to fruition.”

...INTO FALSE TEACHING?

1 John 3

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

¹ See what great love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called children of God! And that is what we are! The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ² Dear friends, now we are children of God, and what we will be has not yet been made known. But we know that when Christ appears, we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. ³ All who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

1 John 3:1-3 NIV

How much can a believer sin (1 John 3:4)?

NLT (cf. NIV)

"Everyone who sins is breaking God's law, for all sin is contrary to the law of God."

Absolute

NAU (cf. NET)

"Everyone who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness."

Habitual

Both translations are possible in the Greek text.

However, wouldn't it be lawless to sin even once?

How much can a believer sin (1 John 3:6)?

NLT (cf. NIV)

"Anyone who continues to live in him will not sin. But anyone who keeps on sinning does not know him or understand who he is."

Habitual

NAU (cf. NET)

"No one who abides in Him sins; no one who sins has seen Him or knows Him."

Absolute

Each of the preceding four translations are inconsistent in rendering verses 4 and 6.

How? In one place each is absolute but then each is habitual in another.

BOTTOM LINE:

We sin when we follow Satan rather than God!

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

Don't hate believers (3:11-15)

"This is the message you have heard from the beginning: We should love one another"
(1 John 3:11 NLT).

"DARKNESS

cannot drive out

DARKNESS.

Only light can do that.

HATE

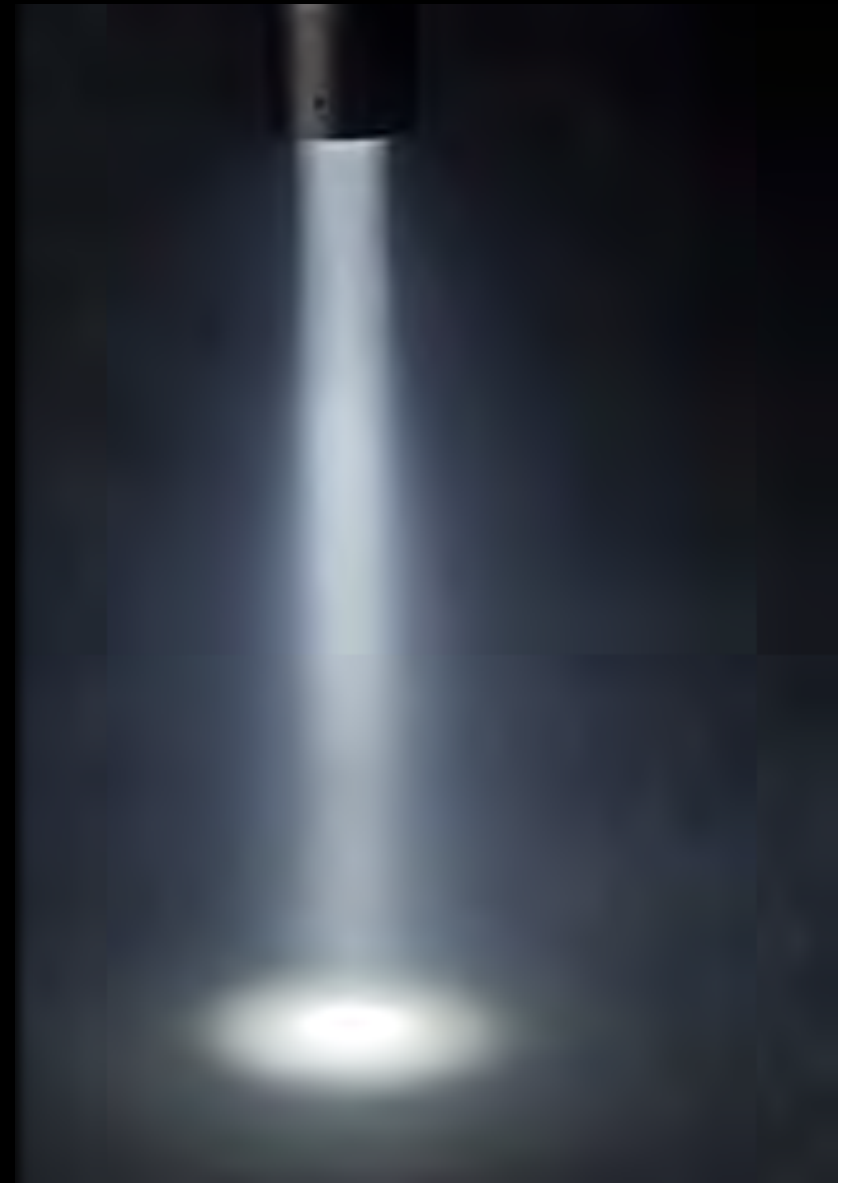

cannot drive out

HATE.

Only love can do that."

—Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.—

Hatred of people is from Satan.

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

Don't hate believers (3:11-15)

Show compassion (3:16-20)

"We know what real love is because Jesus gave up his life for us. So we also ought to give up our lives for our brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister in need but shows no compassion—how can God's love be in that person?" (1 John 3:16-17 NLT).

"Dear children, let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions. ¹⁹ Our actions will show that we belong to the truth, so we will be confident when we stand before God. ²⁰ Even if we feel guilty, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything" (1 John 3:18-20 NLT).

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

Don't hate believers (3:11-15)

Show compassion (3:16-20)

Be confident before God (3:21-24)

"Dear friends, if we don't feel guilty, we can come to God with bold confidence" (1 John 3:21 NLT).

"And we will receive from him whatever we ask because we obey him and do the things that please him"
(1 John 3:22 NLT)."

"And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us. ²⁴ Those who obey God's commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us"
(1 John 3:23-24 NLT).

1 John 4

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

Don't hate believers (3:11-15)

Show compassion (3:16-20)

Be confident before God (3:21-24)

Obey apostolic teaching (4:1-6)

Test the spirits (4:1)

"Dear friends, do not believe everyone who claims to speak by the Spirit. You must test them to see if the spirit they have comes from God. For there are many false prophets in the world.

²This is how we know if they have the Spirit of God: If a person claiming to be a prophet acknowledges that Jesus Christ came in a real body, that person has the Spirit of God"

(1 John 4:1-2 NLT).

"But if someone claims to be a prophet and does not acknowledge the truth about Jesus, that person is not from God. Such a person has the spirit of the Antichrist, which you heard is coming into the world and indeed is already here"
(1 John 4:3 NLT).

"But you belong to God, my dear children. You have already won a victory over those people, because the Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world.

⁵ Those people belong to this world, so they speak from the world's viewpoint, and the world listens to them"

(1 John 4:4-5 NLT).

"But we belong to God, and those who know God listen to us. If they do not belong to God, they do not listen to us. That is how we know if someone has the Spirit of truth or the spirit of deception"
(1 John 4:6 NLT).

II. Love others (3:1–5:3).

Don't sin (3:1-10)

Don't hate believers (3:11-15)

Show compassion (3:16-20)

Be confident before God (3:21-24)

Obey apostolic teaching (4:1-6)

Care for believers (4:7-21)

"Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. ⁸ But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love" (1 John 4:7-8 NLT).

The background is a soft-focus sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with a bright sun low on the horizon creating a lens flare effect. The text is overlaid on this scene in a large, bold, white font with a black outline.

"Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has become a child of God. And everyone who loves the Father loves his children, too. ²We know we love God's children if we love God and obey his commandments. ³Loving God means keeping his commandments, and his commandments are not burdensome"

...INTO FALSE TEACHING?

The Bible says that when we obey God's commands, we benefit. I think we naturally assume that if we look out for our own interests and concerns, we will be happy. But people who sacrifice for others will tell you that seasons of giving are the most rewarding of their lives.

Jesus Will Return to Earth

The Rapture (The “Catching Up”)

"For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the Christians who have died will rise from their graves. Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. So encourage each other with these words" (1 Thess. 4:16-18 NLT).

A Parable on Romans 8:28-30

One day a very wise and skillful sculptor desired to make a beautiful marble statute...

From among the many possibilities in the marble quarry he selected one rough stone which he would use for this purpose.

- Foreknowledge

He marked it and thereby destined it for the beautiful finished product which he had in mind. That mark preserved it from being discarded and destroyed.

• Predestination

Sometime later he sent his helper to fetch the stone and place it on his own work table.

- Calling and justification

Then the sculptor began to chisel, rasp, and file on that block of rough stone shaping into the likeness of the clay model that served as his pattern. In the process, however, he did nothing to ruin the stone and he saw to it that no one else marred it either.

- Progressive sanctification & eternal security

Then one day his work was done. The statue was complete with all its features finely honed in full conformity with his clay model. The time had come to remove it from the clutter of the work bench and take it to the palace court where it would be unveiled for public display.

- Rapture

And all those who passed by smiled their approval and gave accolades of praise to the wise and skillful sculptor.
