Babylon's Fall (Herodotus)

544b

The History of the Persian Wars 1.191 (430 BC)

"[Cyrus] placed a portion of his army at the point where the river enters the city, and another body at the back of the place where it issues forth, with orders to march into the town by the bed of the stream, as soon as the water became shallow enough: he then himself drew off with the unwarlike portion of his host, and made for the place where Nitocris dug the basin for the river, where he did exactly what she had done formerly: he turned the Euphrates by a canal into the basin, which was then a marsh, on which the river sank to such an extent that the natural bed of the stream became fordable.

"Hereupon the Persians who had been left for the purpose at Babylon by the river-side, entered the stream, which had now sunk so as to reach about midway up a man's thigh, and thus got into the town.

Babylon's Fall (Herodotus)

"Had the Babylonians been apprised of what Cyrus was about, or had they noticed their danger, they would never have allowed the Persians to enter the city, but would have destroyed them utterly; for they would have made fast all the street-gates which gave upon the river, and mounting upon the walls along both sides of the stream, would so have caught the enemy, as it were, in a trap. But, as it was, the Persians came upon them by surprise and so took the city. Owing to the vast size of the place, the inhabitants of the central parts (as the residents at Babylon declare) long after the outer portions of the town were taken, knew nothing of what had chanced, but as they were engaged in a festival, continued dancing and reveling until they learnt the capture but too certainly. Such, then, were the circumstances of the first taking of Babylon."

The study of catastrophic plate tectonics (CPT) provides clear insight into how the earth's seven continents may have taken shape out of the supercontinent God created on Day 3 of Creation Week. This developing field of science takes an in-depth look at the earth's plates from a biblical perspective. For a look at the possible history behind the earth's modern formation, see the chart on the reverse side and the products above.

SCIENTIFIC FACT:

The movement of the continental plates to their present positions did not take millions of years of slow plate shifting.

In Genesis 6–8 we read of a catastrophe that impacted the earth in a way unlike any other disaster since that time. Such a catastrophe would impact not only the earth's atmosphere and inhabitants but also its very foundations. The earth's landmass during Adam's day was extremely different from the seven continents of our modern world. But what caused it to change so drastically? Catastrophic plate tectonics (CPT) is one possible contributing factor.

THE WORLD THAT PERISHED

The transformation of Adam's world into today's world

Rodinia

Most secular and biblical geologists believe that all the land has been together more than once. One of these supercontinents is called "Rodinia" (from the Russian word for "motherland"). Although scientists continue to debate its exact shape, when God spoke the dry land into existence on Day 3 of Creation Week (Genesis 1:9–10), He may have created a landmass similar to Rodinia.

Breakup

Pangaea

Transitional Period

Flood Period

The worldwide Flood covered the entire globe—over the highest mountains of that day by more than 15 cubits (up to 26 ft [8m]) (Genesis 7:20).

Today's World

Today, we are left with evidence that the continents moved apart in the past. For example, the coastlines of South America and Africa fit together, like pieces of a puzzle.

Catastrophic plate movement also explains the fascinating magnetic pattern found in ocean floor rocks. These rocks record a "zebra stripe" pattern of magnetic pole reversals, switching back and forth between north and south (see below).

Break-Up

The Flood began with a breakup of the "fountains of the great deep" and an opening of the "windows of heaven" (Genesis 7:11; see below). This may have been the result of the breakup of the original supercontinent into huge plates of the earth's crust. These plates split, moved, and collided throughout the duration of the Flood.

Pangaea

There is evidence that suggests that, after the breakup, the land again smashed together, forming another supercontinent called Pangaea. This temporary supercontinent formed and broke up entirely during the Flood.

Transitional Period

Still during the flood, Pangaea broke apart, first into Laurasia and Gondwana and finally into the continents we have today. At the end of this period the Indian subcontinent slammed into the Eurasian plate, forming the Himalayan mountains.

"Fountains" and "Windows"

When Noah, his family, and their cargo of animals were safely aboard the Ark, the Flood began.

Thousands of miles of the earth's crust (surface rock plates) split apart along lines traversing the globe. The mantle (hot rock beneath) rose to fill the voids between the splitting plates. When this 2,000°F (1,093°C) rock contacted the cool seawater above it, the seawater flashed into steam. This formed a line of steam jets along the boundaries of the plates (possibly the "fountains of the great deep").

The immense and incredibly powerful steam jets shot tens of thousands of feet into earth's atmosphere. Significant amounts of seawater were also lifted into the atmosphere. For several weeks, this fell to the earth as intense global rain (possibly the "windows of heaven").

The rising of the mantle through earth's crust also resulted in a temporary rise in the global sea level, causing the oceans to flood the continents.

These simultaneous activities resulted in the dramatic shifting of the earth's crust to produce today's seven continents.

Magnetic Reversals

Within the catastrophic plate tectonics model, heat was rapidly lost from earth's outer core. This cooling resulted in the earth's magnetic field quickly reversing during the Flood. These magnetic reversals were expressed at the earth's surface as short periods of normal magnetization alternating with short periods of reversed magnetization. Illustrations 1–3 show how the reversals were expressed as a "zebra stripe" pattern on either side of the mid-ocean ridge.

"Ultimate" Power

Who has greater power –
Pharaoh or Yahweh?

Why is the Exodus so significant?

- God is more powerful than Egypt's gods (12:29, 37)!
- God fulfilled his promise to the day (12:40-41; cf. Gen. 15:15)
- Typology of Passover lamb (12:3-5, 27, 43, 46; cf. John 1:29; 19:36; 1 Cor 5:7-8)

The people walked on dry ground across the Red Sea.

Why is the Exodus so significant?

- Beginning of the nation (6:6-8)
- New calendar (12:2)
- Response of faith to receive new life

Isaiah as an Example to Egypt

“In the year when King Sargon of Assyria sent his commander in chief to capture the Philistine city of Ashdod, <sup>2</sup> the LORD told Isaiah son of Amoz, ‘Take off the burlap you have been wearing, and remove your sandals.’ Isaiah did as he was told and walked around naked and barefoot.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said, ‘My servant Isaiah has been walking around naked and barefoot for the last three years. This is a sign—a symbol of the terrible troubles I will bring upon Egypt and Ethiopia’”

Babylon by the Sea

“An oracle concerning the Desert by the Sea:
Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland,
an invader comes from the desert,
from a land of terror” (Isaiah 21:1 NIV).

“21:1. In this oracle (see comments on 13:1) Isaiah pictured an invasion of the Desert by the Sea (i.e., Babylon by the Persian Gulf) as being like an approaching desert storm. The invader was probably Marduk-apal-iddina (Merodach-Baladan) who arose suddenly from the desert regions to revolt against Assyria”
(John A. Martin, “Isaiah,” in BKC, 1:1068).

Babylon by the Sea

“A dire vision has been shown to me:
The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot.
Elam, attack! Media, lay siege!
I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused”
(Isa 21:2 NIV).

“21:2. God gave Isaiah a vision about the Babylonian uprising against Assyria. The prophet heard the battle cry for Elam and Media (north of Elam) to attack Babylon and free it from Assyria. I refers to the invader in the vision (see comments on v. 1); he said he would stop the groaning ... caused by the traitor, the Assyrian Empire which had caused most nations in the region to ‘groan’ under the devastation caused by her conquests. Apparently Marduk-apal-iddina felt that he would be able to stop the Assyrian advance and thereby liberate the entire region” (John A. Martin, “Isaiah,” in BKC, 1:1068).

Tyre Destroyed

Phoenicia

“This message came to me concerning Tyre:
Weep, O ships of Tarshish, for the harbor and houses of Tyre are gone!
The rumors you heard in Cyprus are all true”
(Isaiah 23:1 NLT).

Geography...

of Phoenicia

- ◇ Strip of land between the Mediterranean Sea and mountains
- ◇ 'a fertile ground'
- ◇ Heart of the region:
Tyre, Sidon and Byblos

Trade...

Exported crafts and imported raw materials from faraway countries:

- ◇ bronze – exported to Assyria, Cyprus, Greece, Italy
- ◇ ivory – imported from Syria and re-exported finished product to the west
- ◇ Also glass workings, wool stuffs dyed in purple, etc.

"Tarshish sent merchants to buy your wares in exchange for silver, iron, tin, and lead. <sup>13</sup>Merchants from Greece, Tubal, and Meshech brought slaves and articles of bronze to trade with you" (Ezekiel 27:12 NLT).

Tyre

Ancient Phoenician Ship

The Phoenicians were the greatest traders of the ancient world. They bartered goods throughout the Mediterranean, traveling as far as Spain and the West African coast—incredible distances for small ships with rudimentary maps and no more than the stars to guide them.

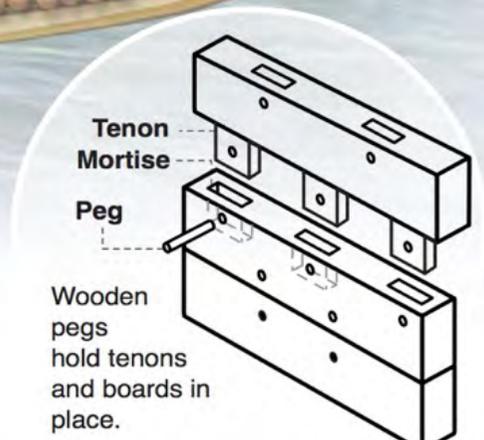

The three greatest Phoenician cities were Sidon, Byblos, and Tyre. The Bible often presents Tyre as an example of wealth and influence.

A Phoenician shipwreck from the 14th century BC was discovered off the coast of Turkey. It was carrying 10 tons of copper, one ton of tin, nearly a ton of terebinth resin (for incense) in 150 jars, a large quantity of raw glass, and many other precious goods.

Mortise-and-tenon construction

Builders would chisel matching square holes (mortises) into the edges of the boards and insert square lengths of oak (tenons).

The Trade of Phoenicia

Commercially astute:
used trade treaties &
political alliances:

119

- ◇ Trade with David (2 Sam. 5:11; 1 Kings 5:1)
- ◇ King Hiram helped Solomon in building and overseas ventures
- ◇ Export of oil, wine and timber
- ◇ Called a harlot (Isa. 23:16-17)

Who was the King of Tyre (Isaiah 23)?

Tyrian coins

"Son of man, give the prince of Tyre this message from the Sovereign LORD:

'In your great pride, you claim, "I am a god! I sit on a divine throne in the heart of the sea." But you are only a man and not a god, though you boast that you are a god.'"

Poseidon's Temple

Tyre's king regarded himself as the god of the sea
(Ezek. 28:2 NLT)

2 "Son of man, give the prince of Tyre this message from the Sovereign LORD:

"In your great pride you claim, 'I am a god! I sit on a divine throne in the heart of the sea.' But you are only a man and not a god, though you boast that you are a god" (Ezekiel 28:2).

Satan cast down
(cf. Rev. 12:7-13)

<sup>3</sup> You regard yourself as wiser than Daniel and think no secret is hidden from you.
<sup>4</sup> With your wisdom and understanding you have amassed great wealth—
gold and silver for your treasuries.
<sup>5</sup> Yes, your wisdom has made you very rich,
and your riches have made you very proud"
(Ezekiel 28:3-5)

Fall of Lucifer, the Shining Star
(cf. Rev. 12:7-9)

"You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and exquisite in beauty. <sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God... <sup>15</sup> You were blameless in all you did from the day you were created until the day evil was found in you"
(Ezekiel 28:12-15)

Fall of Lucifer, the Shining Star
(cf. Rev. 12:7-9)

16 Your rich commerce led you to violence,
and you sinned.

So I banished you in disgrace
from the mountain of God.

I expelled you, O mighty guardian,
from your place among the stones of fire.

17 Your heart was filled with pride because of all your beauty.

Your wisdom was corrupted by your love of splendor.

So I threw you to the ground and exposed you to the curious gaze of kings"

(Ezek. 28:16-17)
