Kingdom Statement

343

The judgment of Jerusalem was inevitable due to her refusal to obey the old covenant (1–19), yet after a 70-year captivity (25:11-12) and judgment on the Gentiles, Israel will submit to God's rule under a new covenant (30–33).

Jeremiah

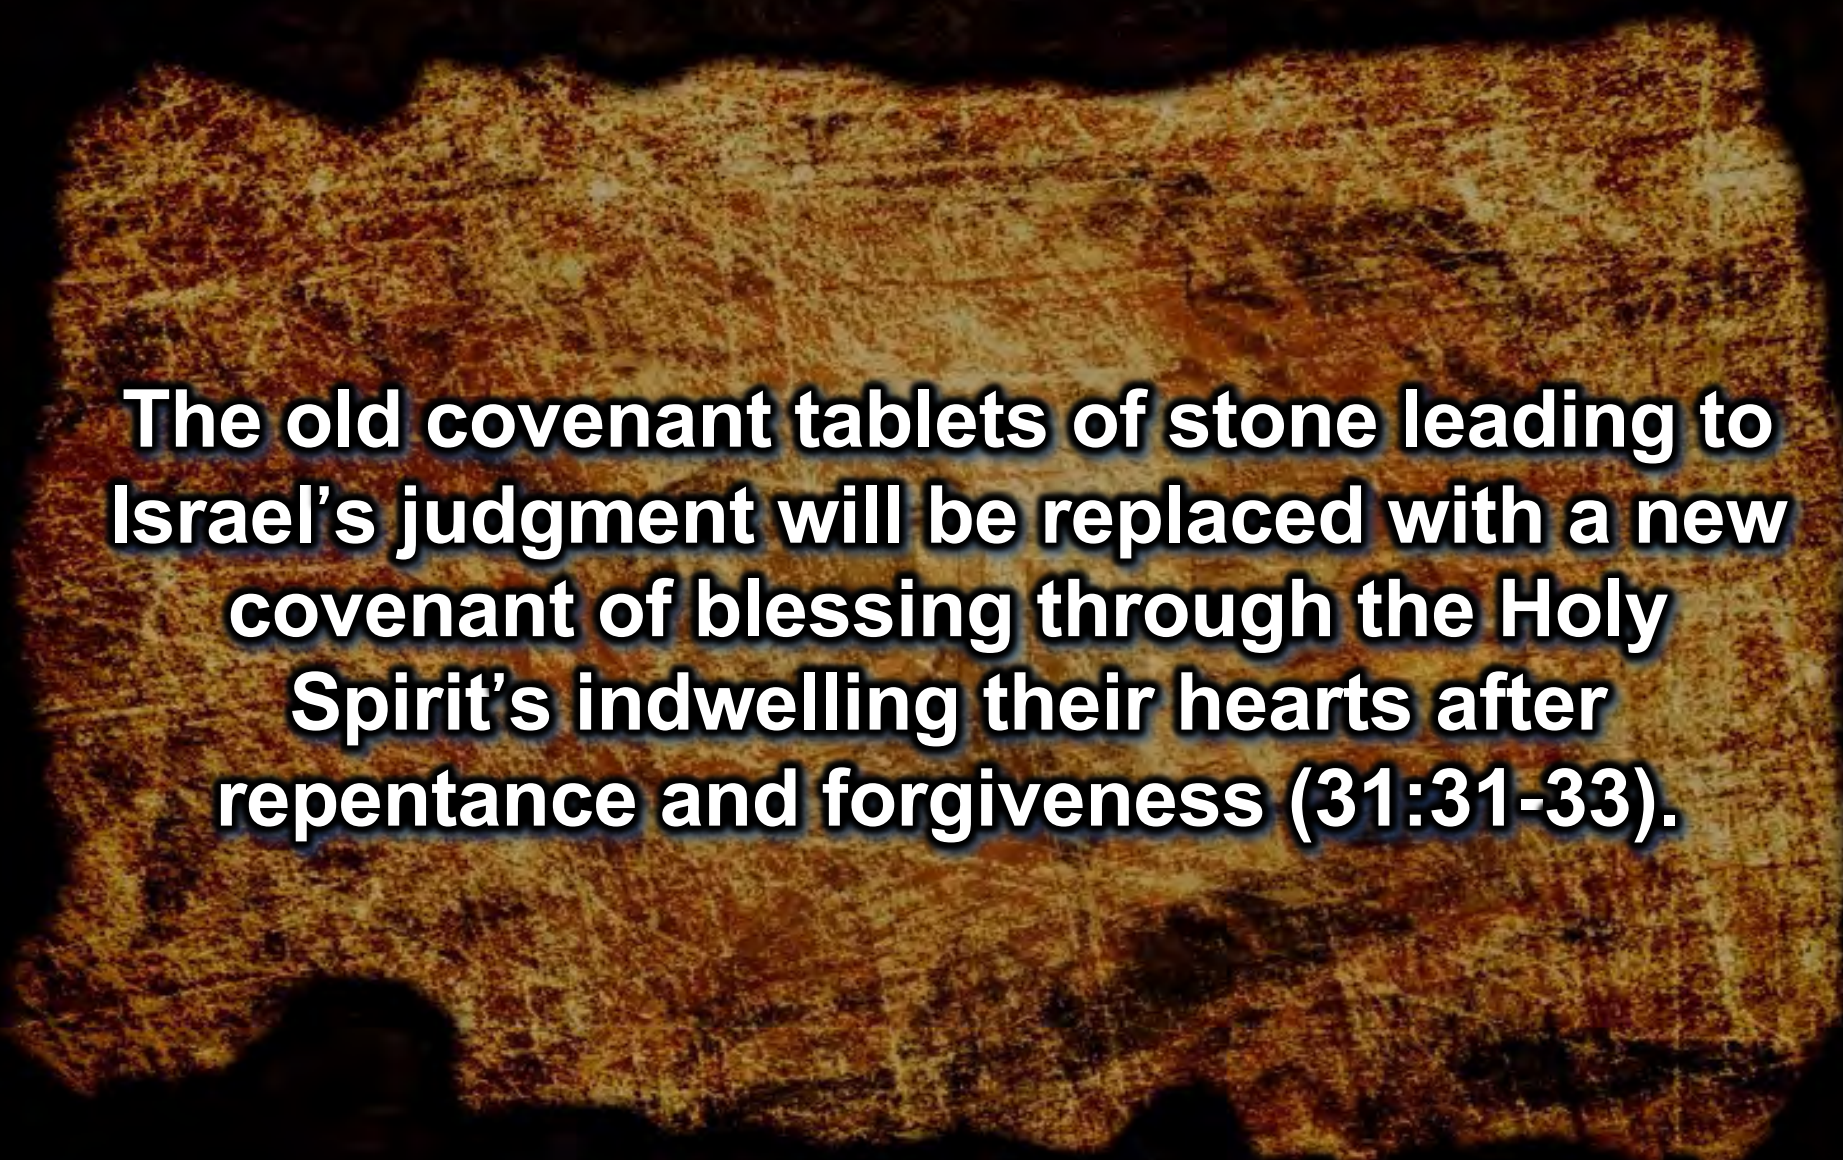

Summary Statement

The deserved fall of Jerusalem, 70-year captivity, judgment of Gentiles, and restoration under a new covenant give hope and exhort Judah to accept God's inevitable discipline by yielding to Babylon.

Jeremiah

Covenant

347b

The old covenant tablets of stone leading to Israel's judgment will be replaced with a new covenant of blessing through the Holy Spirit's indwelling their hearts after repentance and forgiveness (31:31-33).

Jeremiah

Redemption

347b

Redemption in a spiritual renewal (chapters 30–33) awaits Israel after her unfaithfulness ends, which is a redemption that will occur because Israel will never cease to exist as a nation (31:35-37).

How does God comfort
even those he disciplines?

God works within his own limits so we will submit to his discipline.

A detailed oil painting depicting a human hand being cast into a large, earthenware pot filled with a bubbling, yellowish liquid, representing boiling water. The hand is shown in a dynamic, falling position, with fingers slightly curled. The pot is dark and textured, and the liquid inside is a warm, golden-yellow color with visible ripples and highlights. The background is dark and indistinct, focusing the viewer's attention on the central action.

Main Idea of Jeremiah

I. God calls messengers who are honest with us (Jer 1).

How does God
comfort even those he disciplines?

II. God has limited discipline but unlimited blessing (Jer 2–45).

How does God
comfort even those he disciplines?

III. God applies the same standard to all people (Jer 46–51).

A detailed oil painting of a hand, likely belonging to a figure of authority or a deity, dipping into a shallow, wide bowl filled with a golden, viscous liquid. The hand is rendered with realistic detail, showing skin texture and veins. The liquid in the bowl has a shimmering, reflective quality. The background is dark and indistinct, focusing attention on the hand and the bowl.

How does God
comfort even those he disciplines?

IV. God balances justice with mercy (Jer 52).

A detailed painting of a hand, likely Jesus, dipping into a bowl of water. The hand is rendered with soft, realistic skin tones and visible veins. The bowl is a simple, light-colored ceramic or earthenware vessel, partially filled with water. The background is dark and textured, suggesting a rustic or indoor setting. The overall mood is one of gentle care and cleansing.

Jeremiah - Yirməyāhū in Hebrew

From either of 2 roots meaning
"cast, shoot" or "loosen":

1. "Yahweh establishes, appoints or sends"
2. "Yahweh throws," perhaps in the sense of laying a foundation

Who was Jeremiah?

- Son of Hilkiah, a priest (Jer. 1:1)
- Lived in town of Anathoth
3 miles (5 km.) NE of Jerusalem
- Began his ministry around 20 years old
- Was well-off enough to buy a field (Jer. 32)

Geography of Jeremiah

1. Assyria: Since 722 BC, Assyria dominated Jerusalem.
2. Babylon: In 612 BC Nineveh, Assyria's capital, fell to Babylon. This meant Judah would be subject to Babylon.
3. Egypt: Assyria-Babylon conflicts gave Egypt control of Israel. Pharaoh Neco killed Josiah of Judah in 609 BC, then his son Jehoahaz ruled 3 months. Neco replaced him with his brother Jehoiakim.

475-6

Geography of Jeremiah

4. Babylon: When Egypt was defeated by Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon at the Battle of Carchemish (605 BC), Jehoiakim switched allegiance from Egypt to Babylon.

Campaigns

Egypt: Four years later (601 BC), Egypt defeated Nebuchadnezzar and Jehoiakim switched his allegiance back to Egypt. What a mistake!

Babylon: In 597 BC Nebuchadnezzar attacked Jerusalem and killed Jehoiakim. He was replaced with Jehoiachin but 3 months later he deported him to Babylon with 10,000 others.

- He was replaced with his uncle Zedekiah, who ruled 11 years until the siege and fall of Jerusalem in 586 BC.

Unique Characteristics

How was judgment inevitable?

1. The people are encouraged to repent only up until chapter 19 (e.g., 15:19; 17:24; 18:8; cf. 5:3; 8:6). Yet after this point no exhortations to repent are forthcoming.
2. Jeremiah was instructed by God not even to pray for the people of Judah (11:14; 14:11).
3. Jeremiah told the people that each could individually have life instead of death if he/she would surrender to the Babylonians, but the destruction still would come on the nation as a whole (21:8-9; 24:1-10; 27:5-12, 16-17; 32:5; 38:17-23; 42:9-22; 52:24-27).

How was judgment inevitable?

4. God's determination of the length of the captivity at 70 years indicates that judgment was unavoidable (25:11-12; 29:10).
5. Jeremiah smashed a pot to illustrate that God's decision to destroy the city was not retractable (19:1-2, 10-11).
6. Jeremiah instructed those already in exile to settle down (29:4-14) in contrast to the false prophet Hananiah, who said the exile would only last two years (28:1-3, 10-12). This indicates that the "die was already cast" and even repentance of the people could not forestall God's judging hand.

False Prophets & Priests Oppose Jeremiah

Jeremiah is beaten and placed in stocks by Pashhur, chief officer of the temple.

Jer. 20:1-3

After release, Baruch, a young scribe, offers to help him.

Seal of Immer

This seal was used by Immer, father of Pashur in Jeremiah 20:1 (ESV)—
"When the priest Pashhur son of Immer, the official in charge of the temple of the Lord, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten and put in the stocks at the Upper Gate of Benjamin at the Lord's temple."

The clay sealing (Bulla) of Hishilyahu son of Immer, a member of the priestly Immer family, who served in the administration of the Temple treasury.

No Repentance in Jerusalem after Nebuchadnezzar

Depiction of People Through Figs at the Temple

Good figs

- Exiles in Babylon who had begun to repent
- God will take care of them and bring them back

Bad, rotten figs

- King Zedekiah and his court and all people in Jerusalem
- Still plotting and scheming against Babylon
- Not fit to keep

Jeremiah 24

Jeremiah's Application: "Leave Jerusalem"

Jeremiah 24 portrayed all the Jews as two types of figs during Babylon's siege:

1.The "bad figs" who refused to submit to God's discipline by the Babylonians would disobey God by staying in the city and dying.

2.The "good figs" would spare their lives by leaving the city to surrender to the Babylonians outside!

New Covenant & Branch of David

New Covenant – law written on our hearts and Spirit to guide - Jer. 31

Branch of David – New King and Priest - Jer. 33

The New Covenant (Jeremiah 31:31-34)

Four Unconditional Biblical Covenants

The new covenant is God's unconditional amplification of the blessing promise in the Abrahamic Covenant where Judah and Israel will experience national and spiritual redemption.

The New Covenant

Jeremiah 31:31-34

³¹"The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah.

³²It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them," declares the LORD.

³³"This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time," declares the LORD.

The New Covenant

Jeremiah 31:31-34

33b "I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴ And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, declares the LORD. For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."

Unconditional Nature

"God's love is unconditional. But you must act now. Offer may be withdrawn at any time. Void where prohibited by law."

- A. Eternal (Jer. 31:36, 40; 32:40; 50:5; Isa 61:2. 8-9; 24:5; Ezek. 37:26)
- B. Amplification of the Abrahamic Covenant, which is unconditional
- C. Unqualified "I will" statements of God

Provisions

FULFILLED

- Indwelling of the Holy Spirit (Jer. 31:33 with Ezek. 36:27)
- New nature, heart & mind (Jer. 31:33; Isa. 59:21)
- Forgiveness of sins (Jer. 31:34b)

NOT YET FULFILLED

- Everyone will know the Lord (Jer. 31:34a)
- Israel and Judah will be reunited (Jer. 31:31)

Views on the Time of Fulfillment⁴⁷⁷

Amillennialists often say all of the provisions of the New Covenant are being realized now in the church which they consider the “new Israel.” But are they?

1. Partial Fulfillment in the present church age

- a. Only one New Covenant for Israel (Darby)
- b. Two New Covenants: one for Israel and one for the church (Chafer)
- c. One New Covenant with a two fold- application: primarily to Israel, secondarily to the Church

2. Complete fulfillment after the return of Christ

“Old” Replaced by “New”

Wayne Grudem, Systematic Theology, 521

“What then is the 'old covenant' in contrast with the 'new covenant' in Christ? It is not the whole of the Old Testament, because the covenants with Abraham and David are never called 'old' in the New Testament. Rather, only the covenant under Moses, the covenant made at Mount Sinai (Ex. 19-24) is called the 'old covenant' (2 Cor. 3:14; cf. Heb. 8:6, 13), to be replaced by the “new covenant” in Christ (Luke 22:20; 1 Cor. 11:25; 2 Cor. 3:6; Heb. 8:8, 13; 9:15; 12:24).”

Scripture has a dual kingdom-covenant theme. Israel's role from Abraham to Christ expands to include the Church (continuity) yet the Church never replaces the nation as the "new Israel" (discontinuity). Israel will enjoy world prominence after trusting Christ at His second coming.

Main Idea of Jeremiah 32

When God asks you to do something "crazy," do it!
It shows you're fitting into His plans.

What "field" does God want you to buy?

“I will certainly bring my people back again from all the countries where I will scatter them in my fury. I will bring them back to this very city and let them live in peace and safety. ³⁸ They will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ And I will give them one heart and one purpose: to worship me forever, for their own good and for the good of all their descendants. ⁴⁰ And I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good for them. I will put a desire in their hearts to worship me, and they will never leave me. ⁴¹ I will find joy doing good for them and will faithfully and wholeheartedly replant them in this land.”

—Jeremiah 32:37-41 NLT—

Jeremiah 33

“Then this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²⁰ 'This is what the LORD says: If you can break my covenant with the day and the night so that one does not follow the other, ²¹ only then will my covenant with my servant David be broken. Only then will he no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne. The same is true for my covenant with the Levitical priests who minister before me. ²² And as the stars of the sky cannot be counted and the sand on the seashore cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of my servant David and the Levites who minister before me.'”

—Jeremiah 33:19-22 NLT—

“The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, ²⁴ ‘Have you noticed what people are saying?—“The LORD chose Judah and Israel and then abandoned them!” They are sneering and saying that Israel is not worthy to be counted as a nation. ²⁵ But this is what the LORD says: I would no more reject my people than I would change my laws that govern night and day, earth and sky. ²⁶ I will never abandon the descendants of Jacob or David, my servant, or change the plan that David’s descendants will rule the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead, I will restore them to their land and have mercy on them.”*

And the king of Assyria transported groups of people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath, and Sepharvaim and resettled them in the towns of Samaria, replacing the people of Israel. So the Assyrians took over Samaria and the other towns of Israel (2 Kings 17:24).

Assyrian Developments

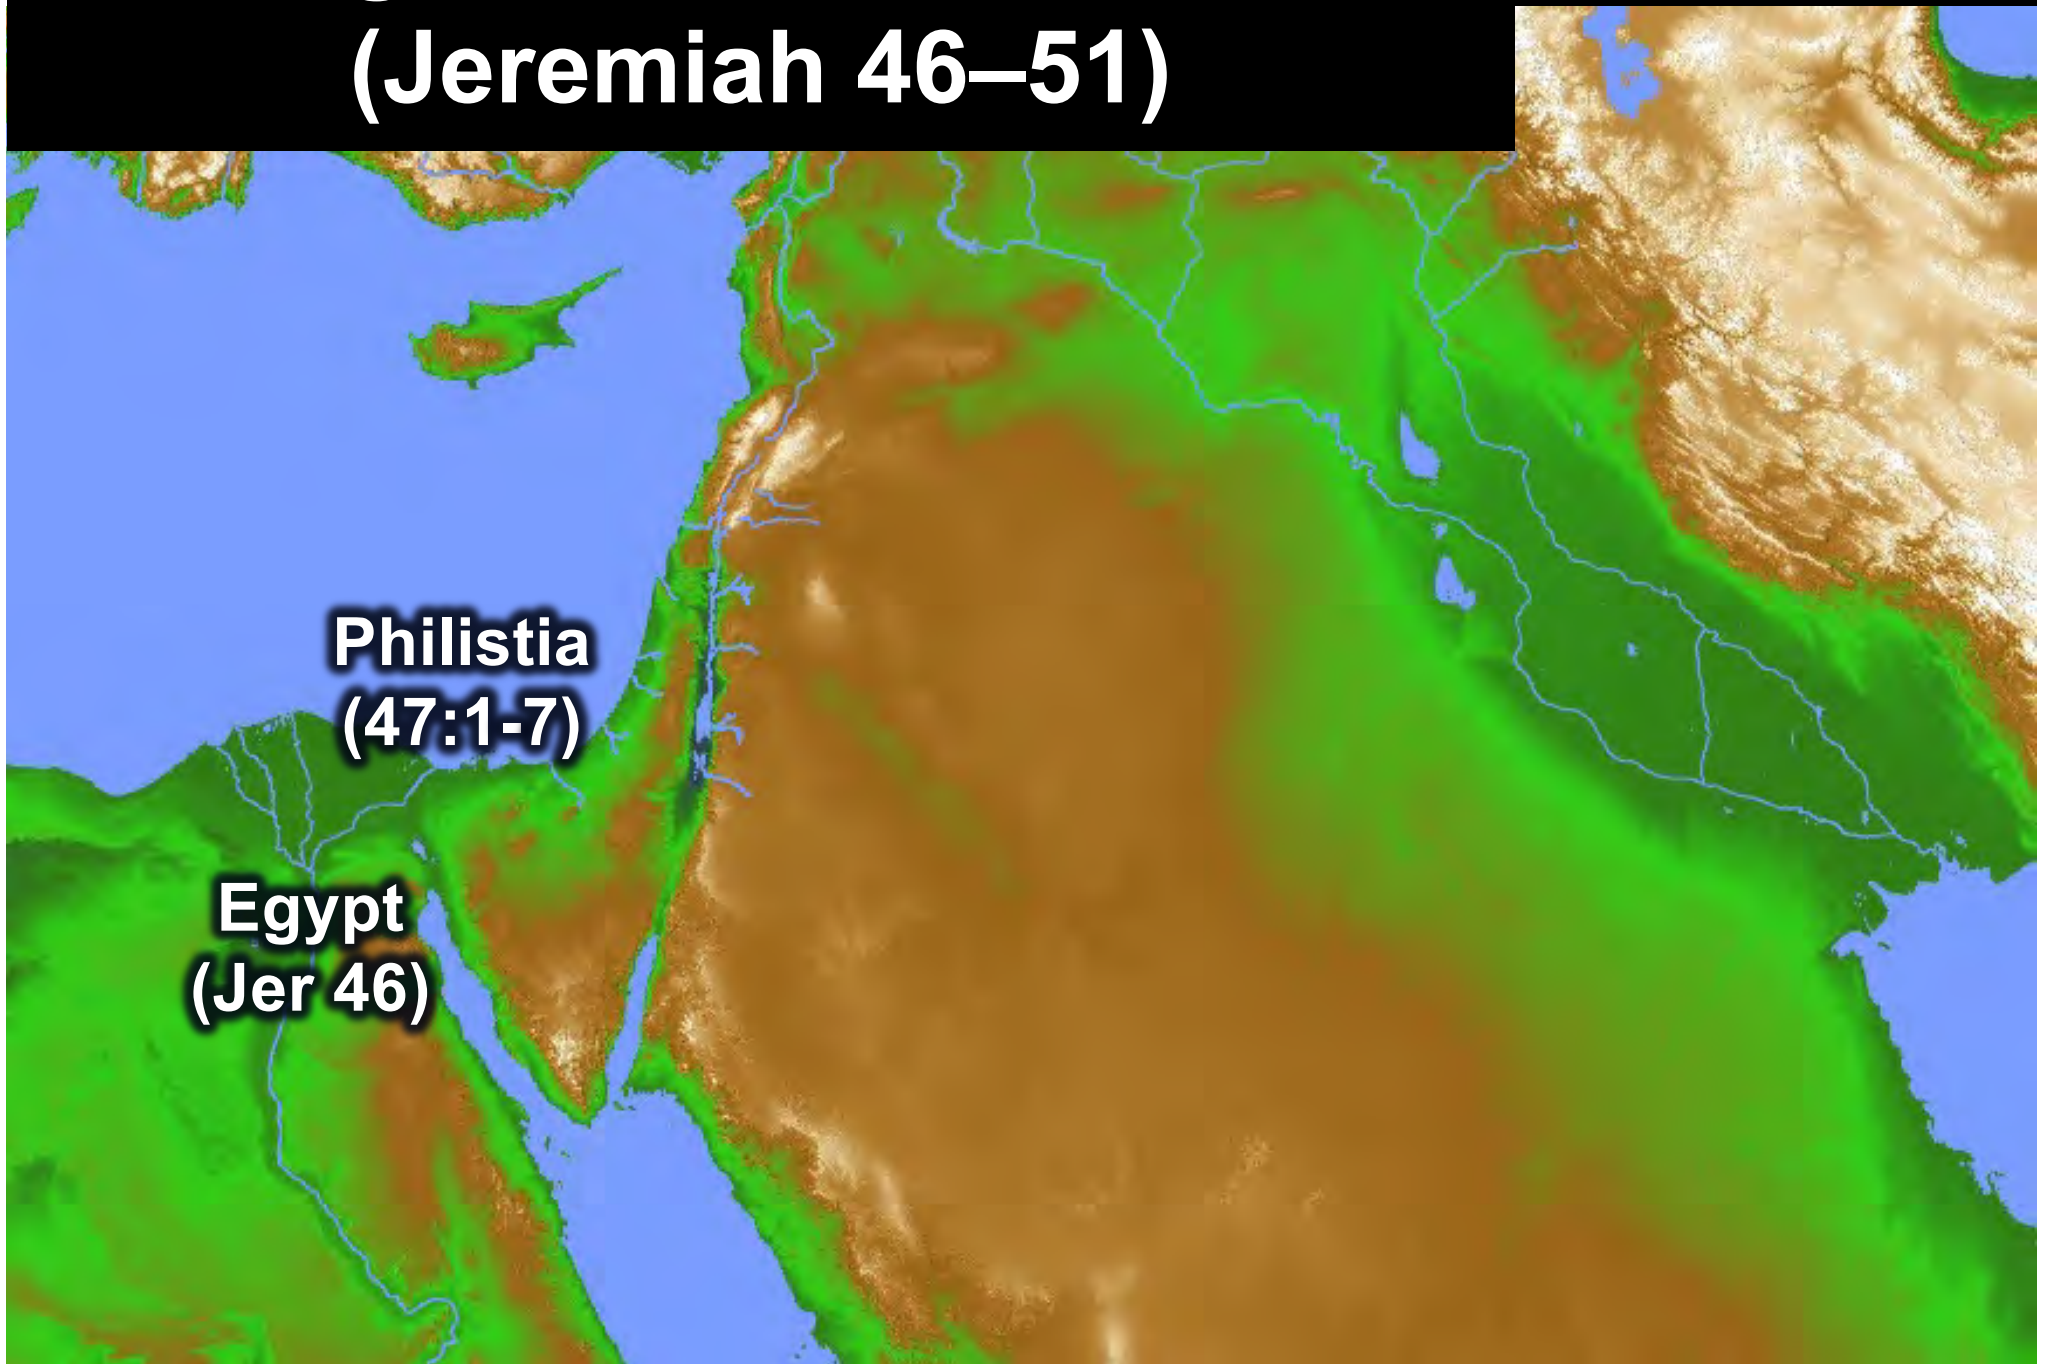

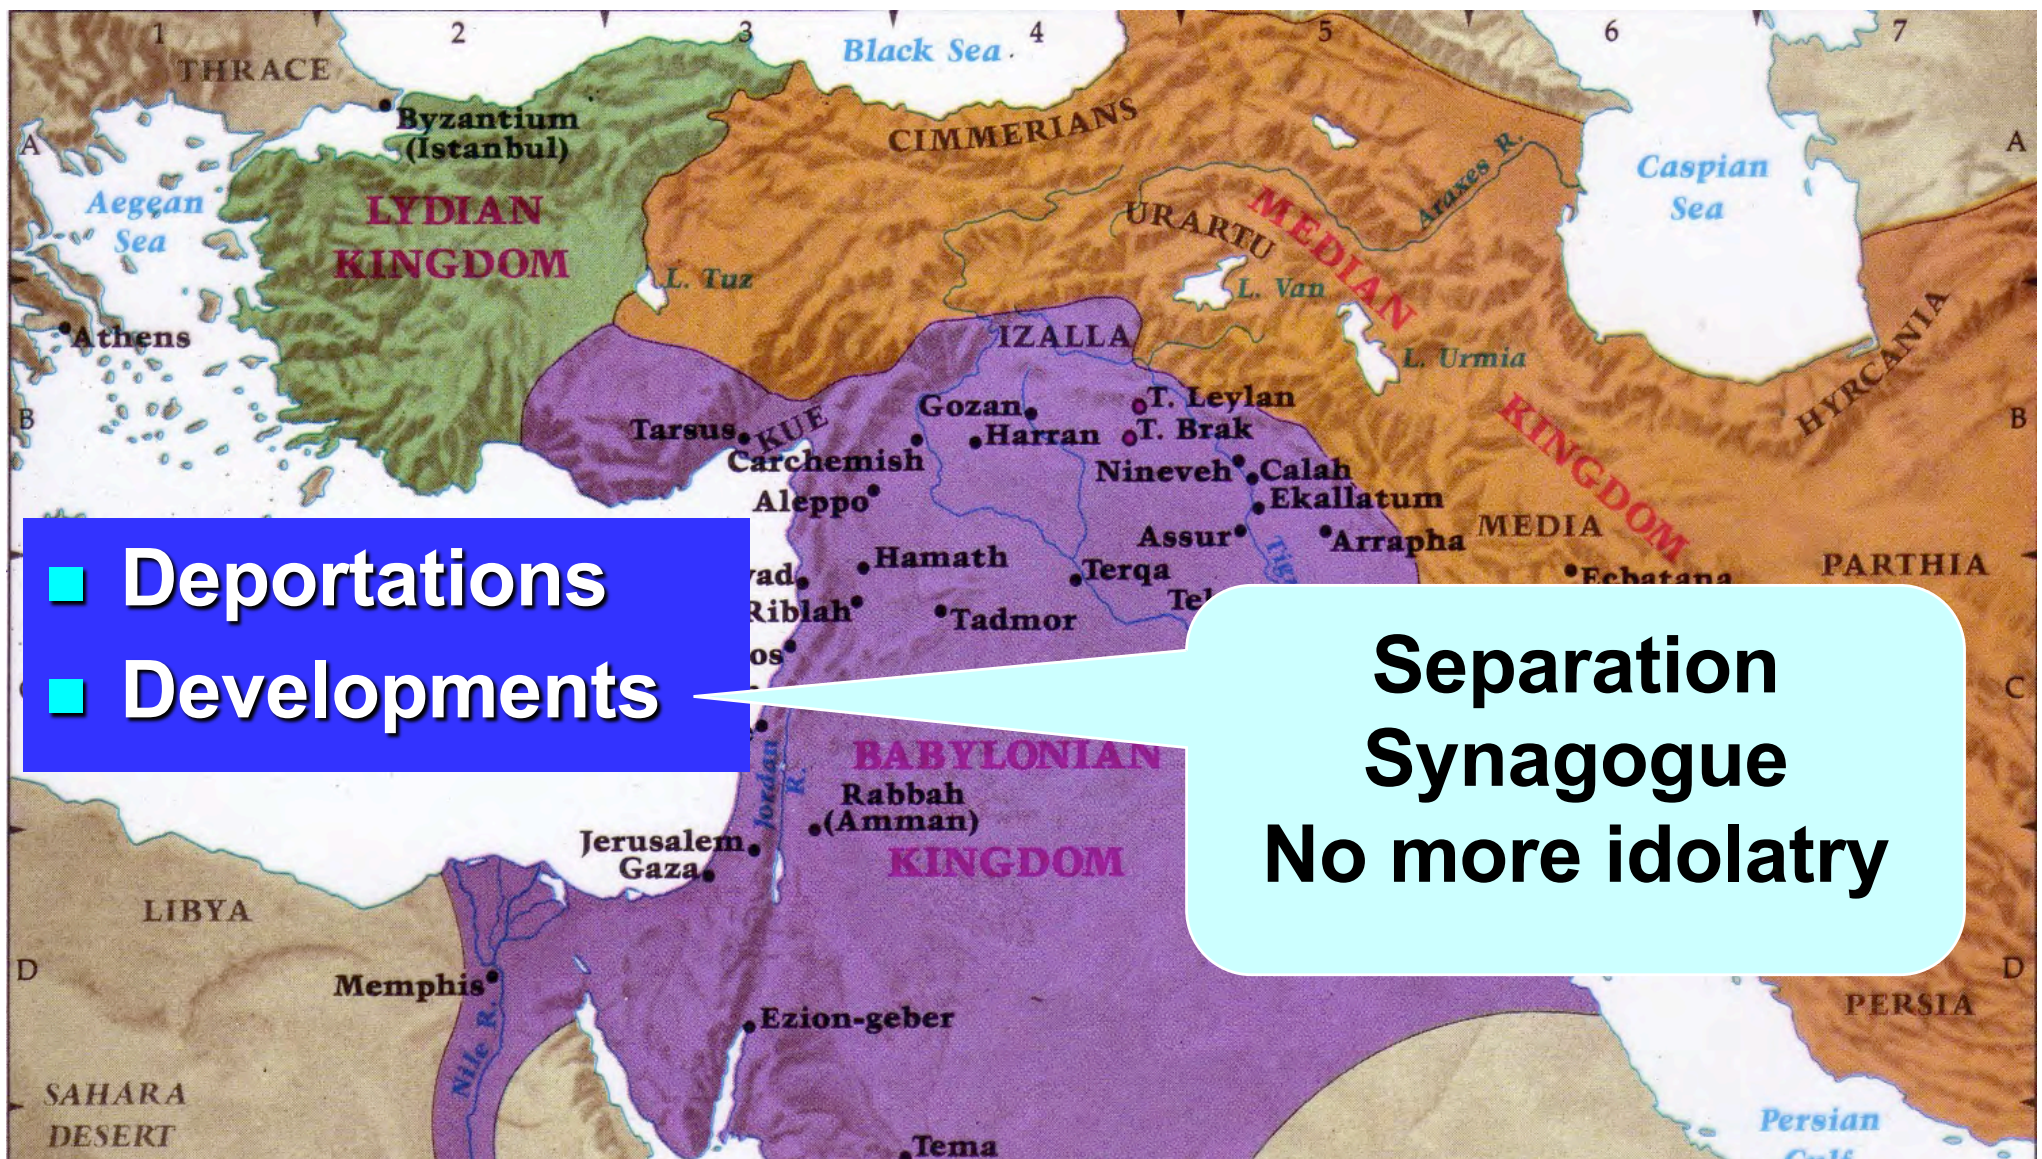

Finally, in the ninth year of King Hoshea's reign, Samaria fell, and the people of Israel were exiled to Assyria. They were settled in colonies in Halah, along the banks of the Habor River in Gozan, and among the cities of the Medes (2 Kings 17:6).

Do you focus on God's discipline instead of his mercy in your life?

How does God comfort
even those he disciplines?

God works within his own
limits so we will submit to
his discipline.

A detailed painting of a human hand being cast into a large, earthenware pot filled with a bubbling, yellowish liquid, representing boiling water. The hand is shown in a dynamic, falling position, with fingers slightly curled. The pot is made of a light-colored, textured material, possibly clay or stone, and sits on a dark, reflective surface. The background is dark and indistinct, focusing attention on the central action. The overall tone is somber and dramatic, emphasizing the theme of divine discipline.

Main Idea of Jeremiah

I. God calls messengers who are honest with us (Jer 1).

A detailed oil painting of a hand, likely belonging to a figure of authority or a messenger, dipping into a shallow, wide bowl filled with a golden, viscous liquid. The hand is rendered with realistic detail, showing the texture of the skin and the veins. The liquid in the bowl has a shimmering, reflective quality. The background is dark and indistinct, focusing the viewer's attention on the hand and the bowl.

APPLICATIONS

APPLICATION #1: ARE YOU LIKE JEREMIAH?

The prophet Jeremiah's life illustrates how costly serving the Lord can be.

Jeremiah's Difficult & Sacrificial Ministry

- Preached for 40+ years
- Noted people's sins to show God's justice
- Preached accepting God's discipline by submitting to 70-year Babylonian captivity
- Commanded to remain unmarried (16:2)
- Persecuted by his family, hometown people and the religious world
- Thrown into prison (37:5)
- Carried off by force to Egypt where he continued to preach against sin (43:1-7)

God's Assurance to Jeremiah

"Before I formed you in the womb
I knew you, before you were born
I set you apart;
I appointed you as a prophet to the nations..."

Do not say, 'I am only a child.'

You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. Do not be afraid of them for I am with you and will rescue you... Now, I have put my words in your mouth ...

Jer. 1:5,7-9

Are You Like Jeremiah?

- How does Jeremiah's costly service convict you of what you need to do to be more faithful and obedient to God?
- Do you question your calling? Do you resent the task God has given you to do?

APPLICATION #2: ARE YOU LIKE JUDAH?

If we choose to continue to sin
we'll eventually come to the point where God's discipline is inevitable.

Judah's Sin

"Even the stork that flies across the sky knows the time of her migration, as do the turtledove, the swallow, and the crane. They all return at the proper time each year.

But not my people! They do not know the LORD's laws."

Animals observe God's laws but not God's people.

People act as though they have never heard His laws.

Jeremiah 8:7 NLT

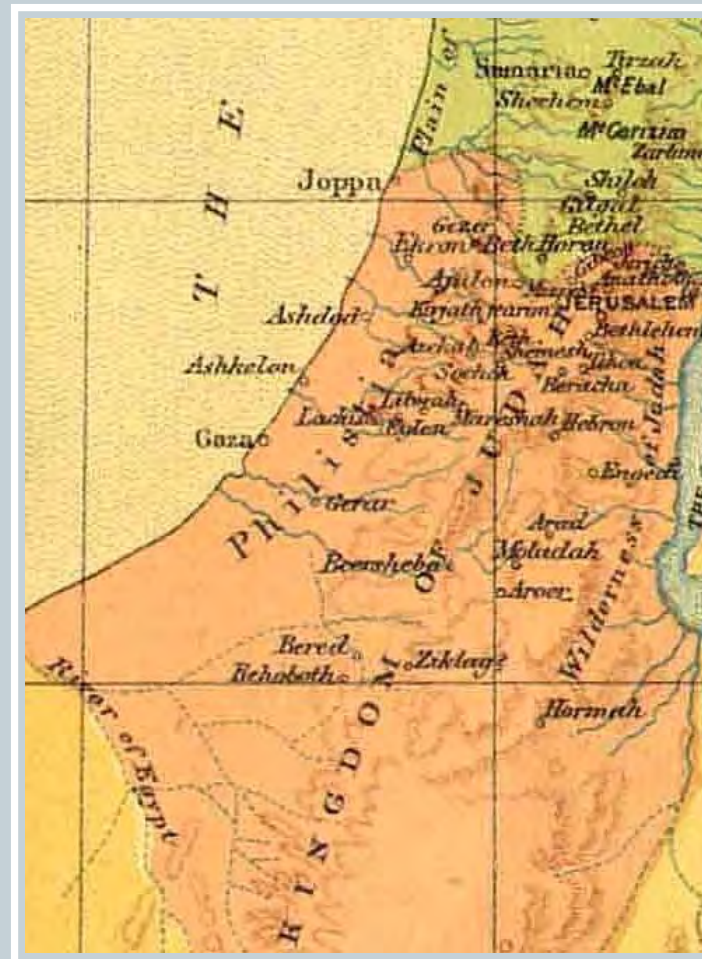

Judah's Sin Eventually Resulted in God's Discipline

1. Judah's kings and leaders were judged and punished. Jeremiah 22
2. Jews endured 70 years of Babylonian exile.
Jeremiah 25:11
3. God also judged nations that persecuted Judah.
Jeremiah 46–51

Are You Like Judah?

- In what area of your life do you continue in sin or resist repenting?
- Do you accept God's just discipline?

APPLICATION #3: ARE YOU LIKE THE FAITHFUL REMNANT?

There is hope after discipline because God's justice is balanced with mercy and faithfulness.

Nature of Judgment in Jeremiah

1. Against both Judah and Gentile Nations
2. Reveals God's justice, sovereignty, faithfulness and mercy
3. Balanced with hope in New Covenant and Restoration

Are You Part of the Faithful Remnant?

- Do you put your hope in your faithful and merciful God?
- Do you look forward to the Day of the LORD and the complete restoration it promises?

NO HOPE?
