HOW TO COMMUNICATE IDEAS

THIS booklet contains Richard Borden's famous four-point formula for transplanting an idea from your head into someone else's. It's a simple, time-tested method of presenting ideas clearly and effectively. Professional writers and speakers use it constantly. Why don't you?

Your First Reading Assignment

*Read this 20-
page booklet
by next period*

Borden's Basics

The fundamental law of speech organization can be stated in eight words:
Give every speech you make purpose—and form!

10-11

LISTENERS' LAWS FOR SPEECH ORGANIZATION

THE fundamental law of speech organization can be stated in eight words:

Give every speech you make purpose—and form!

Listeners like vertebrate speeches—speeches with a spine.

They dislike speech jellyfish. They dislike flabby, shapeless speeches that begin nowhere, ramble on in all directions—and end up in the air.

THE FORMAL PLATFORM SPEECH

THE organization formula of the formal platform speech is not complex. It is simple.

It is so simple that you can write it on your thumb nail:

1. Ho hum!
2. Why bring that up?

The apparently cryptic phrases in this formula describe the four stages of audience reaction which you, as a platform speaker, must meet.

They are the clues to the four-step organization of your speech.

First Step: Ho hum!

IN THE FIRST SECTION OF YOUR FORMAL PLATFORM SPEECH—START A FIRE!

Your speech is not well organized unless you kindle a quick flame of spontaneous interest in your first sentence.

Smokers do not like matches that fail to light with the first scratch. Listeners do not like speakers who fail to "light" with the first sentence.

When you rise to make a speech, do not picture your audience as waiting with eager eyes and bated breath to catch your message. Picture it, instead, as definitely

Research & Writing

Dr. Rick Griffith has taught 47 preaching courses in seven nations since 1992. The first 32 presentations below share what he taught these many pastors. The others are by Dr. Jeffrey Arthurs from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary when he trained preachers at Singapore Bible College. All 1638 PPT slides aim to help God's people speak from the text of the Bible rather than share personal opinions. Also, click the notes at the end of this page to download 500 pages of handouts for the presentations as well as grade sheets for aspiring preachers. You can also listen to the audio for many sessions at two places.

Epistle Sermon Verses (15 min.)

Rom. 13:8

Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another, for he who loves his fellowman has fulfilled the law.

Rom. 14:22-23

²²So whatever you believe about these things keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the man who does not condemn himself by what he approves. ²³But the man who has doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and everything that does not come from faith is sin.

Gal. 6:2

²Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Epistle Sermon Verses (15 min.)

Eph. 2:10

¹⁰For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Eph. 4:26-27

²⁶"In your anger do not sin": Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, ²⁷and do not give the devil a foothold.

Eph. 4:28

²⁸He who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with his own hands, that he may have something to share with those in need.

Eph. 4:29

²⁹Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen.
